Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

Purely Local

This week, with the Christmas spending spree over, to say nothing of the usual New Year celebration, I am offering a carton of cigarettes to the reader who first sends in, BY MAIL, the correct answers to the following problem. Herewith are listed twelve sets of initials of citizens of Newton who all have something in common, even tho' all may not realize that fact as of today. There are, however, quite a few people in this city who, after due cogitation, will probably make a fairly good guess concerning this brain-child of your columnist.

Here are the initials. It is not necessary to fill out the middle initial, inasmuch as many people do not normally write out their middle name. First and last names, however, must be given correctly. Let me warn you that I am mixing these initials up in such a manner as to try to throw you all off the track.

D.B.F., C.F.S., T.R.L., H.S.B., M.H., J.B.J., R.S.E., C.R.C., C.B.F., W.C., D.M.C., and R.H.L. Now, go to it and let's see who is smart enough to get ALL the correct answers. (N. B. There are one or two Jrs. which are deliberately left out for fear that my readers might catch on too quickly.)

New State Administration

When you are reading this column, Governor Bradford's inaugural will have taken place. Proper comment will be made here next week. I can, however, say a few things about the general situation up on Beacon Hill as we start the New Year, which I trust will be a most happy and prosperous twelve months for all my readers.

First of all, it is obvious, even to the uninitiated, that the G.O.P. is in complete control, to all practical intents and purposes. The Democrats have only one out of the six incumbents in the major state offices. That one is State Auditor Buckley, the only important survivor of the Republican landslide on Nov. 5. In view of the fact that a Democratic Hurley and two Democratic Buckleys have held this office ever since the end of the sixteen year reign of Alonzo B. Cook, a Republican, in January, 1931, except for a two-year term served by G.O.P.'s Russell A. Wood in 1939 and 1940, it is not such a remarkable achievement for the Democracy.

Another interesting feature of the line-up on Beacon Hill this year is the appearance of a new State Treasurer, Laurence Curtis, who has succeeded in breaking through the Hurley monopoly. To be sure, one of the four Hurleys who held this office ever since John W. Haisig, a Republican, gave way to the late Charles F. Hurley in January, 1931, was a Republican Hurley. He was William E. Hurley, a former Boston Postmaster.

This year's Governor's Council, as most of you know, will be Republican by an eight to one margin. That should mean that most of Governor Bradford's appointments will be approved and we will not have the silly exhibition of the past year, when the capable Public Safety Commission

Veterans' Service Ends Year 1946 Within Its Budget

Under a new law which went into effect on January 1, items of soldiers' relief, state and military aid are to be lumped as one item in the city budget and the State will reimburse the city for one half of the total amount expended for those purposes.

The Veterans' Service Department of Newton ended the year of 1946 well within the budget appropriation although there was a sharp increase the past month for relief by veterans of World War II.

Edmund T. Dungan, Veterans' Service Commissioner feels that this increase in requests for relief was due to lay offs of on-the-job training due to shortages of materials and to the termination of the year's payment of unemployment benefits, though some were due to delay in receipt of subsistence checks to veterans attending college under the G.I. Bill.

The sum appropriated in the budget for soldier's relief in the Veterans' Service Department was $10,000 and up to Nov. 1 only $6,891 had been expended and it is believed that expenditures of November and December would still leave a substantial amount of the original appropriation to be returned to the city treasury. The total budget of the department was $26,572 and of this sum $1,500 was for State aid and $750 for military aid.

Auburndale Citizens Sponsor Program Of Boy's Activities

Becoming acutely aware of the lack of facilities to appeal to the energies and drives of young boys in their town a group of community-minded citizens have translated thought into action and set up a committee to sponsor a sports program for youth. This all sprouted from a survey made a year ago last fall by the Community Service Committee of the Auburndale Woman's Club in which it was found that there was no program, other than Scouting and some church groups, that would in any way reach boys in all sections of the community.

Since they believed the need was vital, this small group of parents and friends set themselves up as a committee and appealed to an agency that was at that time set up to work with young boys—the Newton YMCA.

Mrs. Seaver Resigns From High School Teaching Staff

Mrs. M. Estelle Seaver, Americanization teacher for the Newton School Department has submitted her resignation to devote her time to writing pointers for parents.

Mrs. Seaver started her teaching career in 1896 in the grade schools of Worcester and Harvard. In 1899 she was married to Joshua Seaver and moved to Roxbury where she resided until coming to Newton in 1915 where during World War I she taught domestic science subjects in the Vocational School, also serving as a substitute teacher of English and Chemistry. In 1920 she joined the Americanization Department, now known as the Adult Civic Education Division.

Mrs. Seaver feels that during her 40 years to teaching she has gained experience that may be helpful to parents in rearing their children and therefore plans to put forth her suggestions on the subject.

Rotary Club

The annual Christmas party for children was held by the Newton Rotary Club at the Brae Burn Country Club on Monday, with 142 members and their guests present.

There was fun for everybody, the children enjoying the luncheon and the puppet show presented by the Misses Louise Kingman and Collins of Wellesley. They were also thrilled with Hansel & Gretel, Old King Cole and the two clowns.

Cecil Clark led the group in the singing of Christmas songs.

The Real Lesson

A British commentator on American affairs recently said that the United States was moving to the "right," politically speaking, while the rest of the world was tending toward the "left."

A more accurate view would be to say that the United States seems to be moving back to its philosophy of maximum freedom and opportunity for all—while much of the rest of the world is, willingly or not, being subjected to the defeatist philosophy of the super-state with its regimented, slavish peoples.

The recent elections were headlined as a victory for the Republican party, its first of national significance since it became the minority party in 1932. Going deeper than partisanship, however, it is clear that the elections, for the most part, indicated a strong, cohesive demand by the American people for sound Constitutional government free of the "isms" which have so long afflicted us. The Democrats, as well as the Republicans, who won seats in Congress and State governorships, generally typified this point of view.

The wisdom of the American voter is traditional, and he exhibits it again and again. We, as a people, accepted the regimentation of war in the belief it was part of the price of victory. But we didn't surrender our liberties—we simply "loaned" some of them for the duration. With the war over and the victory won, the people demand government, state and national, which will conform to our established free way of life. That is the real lesson of the elections.

NEWTON IN THE PAST

From the Files of The Newton Graphic

55 YEARS AGO

New Graphic, January 8, 1892

The fine sleighing of the past 24 hours has been improved by everyone who could get a sleigh. The police department during the year 1891 made 1180 arrests, 350 more than in the preceding year. Of the total number of arrests 742 were for drunkenness. Last year 435 people were arrested for drunkenness in a total of 830. Under the new law drunkenness has apparently increased in Newton. Clerk Whittlesey reports the police court receipts during 1891 as follows: Fines, $2318; entry fees, $265; writs, $2515; other civil fees, $89.46; naturalization, $80, total, $5263.46. The total number of deaths in 1891 was 373 against 353 in the preceding year; number of marriages in 1891, 314; in 1890, 258. The city council in 1891 acted upon 1160 papers, including reports, petitions and orders.

The new car-house of the West End Co. off Chestnut Hill avenue has been completed, and the Chestnut Hill cars were stored there for the first time Friday night.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, Jan. 8, 1897

The many friends in Auburn-dale of Mr. Edwin O. Childs of Newton, are much pleased with his appointment by the county commissioner to the office of Register of Deeds of Middlesex County. Mr. Childs is very popular with all those having business with the courts at Cambridge, of which he has been a court officer for four years, and his appointment is considered, both by his knowledge of the business of the county and also of his genial and pleasing disposition.

an eminently proper one.

The Wawbewa Canoe Association has recently purchased two large lots of land on Malverne terrace, off Islington street, Auburndale, as a site for a new clubhouse. The spot selected is one of the finest on the river, having a waterfront of over 100 feet on Ben-Yon's cove, just across the river from Norembe Tower. The river at this point is over 200 yards wide and the whole locality, bounded as it is by wild woodland, is one of the loveliest on the entire river.

The Highland Club extended its hospitality to the women friends of its members Tuesday evening. The occasion was the monthly "ladies night," and nearly 200 members and their friends were present. The entire clubhouse was thrown open to guests. The entertainment was entirely informal and whist, bowling and dancing contributed to the evening's entertainment.

25 YEARS AGO

Auburndale women have always scored success in their musical and dramatic undertakings, but none has been more so than the minstrel show put on for the Guest Night of the Auburndale Women's Club on Tuesday of this week. This year the chorus of the club through the music committee, of which Mrs. Lowell D. MacNutt is chairman, provided the entertainment. Hundreds of Boston & Albany patrons were set up on the way home Saturday night by the derailment of several coaches just inside the South Terminal limits. The accident occurred at the height of the 3 o'clock rush and the tieup was not straightened out for several hours.

cremation was at Forest Hills Cemetery Thursday morning with Dr. Arnold officiating.

Surviving him are his wife, Carolyn Dwyer Farnsworth, a son, Everett L. Farnsworth, Jr., of Winter Garden, Florida, a brother, Edward Farnsworth of Somerville, and two sisters, Viola Temple of Westboro and Ethel Farnsworth of Framingham.

Salinger, Mrs. Frank A. Day, Jr., Miss Eleanor Sampson and Loomis Patrick.

Carl P. Schipper, the retiring president was in charge of the business session. Principal Raymond A. Green of the Newton High School told of recent developments in the school and there was a talk by Warren L. Huston, recently named head coach of football. A program of entertainment including a variety show followed and refreshments were served.

Monday night's meeting of the Board on the petition of the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway Co. for permission to change the route of the bus line serving the Oak Hill School. A request for a change in the route was made by residents of Oak Hill and the School Committee as the present route serves only a small group of pupils in the Oak Hill section.

Boys—

Mr. William S. Bungard, Community Supervisor for that organization, immediately produced a program for Auburndale boys—instruction and leadership in baseball at the Thomas Lyons playground during the spring, and football in the fall, to be followed by basketball during the winter. Interest by the boys, especially those in the 5th and 6th grades, was immediate and success very marked, proving without a doubt the need for such a program.

In order to continue the work, however, the YMCA requires that a citizen's committee be organized to cooperate with them and back up their efforts in Auburndale. Thus the present organization was born, composed of parents of young boys as well as public spirited people who, with a little vision and a little work, wish to help a community need become a successful community project. In this way Auburndale is trying to meet the needs of their youth in a sports program which is open to all boys in the community between the ages of 9 and 12.

Monday evening, at the Auburndale Clubhouse, a meeting was held to sponsor the leadership of the YMCA. Mrs. E. Graham Bates outlined the community need and the way it had been met so far. The chairman, Mr. Winslow, then outlined the two immediate aims of the sponsoring committee: the necessity to find indoor facilities for the boys so they could continue their sports activities, especially basketball; and secondly, suggestions for ways to raise money to pay the leaders who will carry on the sports program. The goal is $700.

Mr. William S. Leighton, principal of the Burr and Williams Schools, stated that a total of 91 boys had participated in these youth activities at one time or another, with about 35 boys from Burr and 23 from Williams showing active and sustained interest at the present time.

New impetus was given the project by the report from Mr. Bungard on how much the boys had enjoyed the fall program. He stated the boys were very conscientious, very willing to try, very interested in learning the fundamentals of good sportsmanship.

The meeting ended with a statement by the Chairman that a smaller committee would be appointed to investigate ways and means to carry out the two-fold aim. Following is a list of the officers and members of the Advisory Committee: General chairman, Mr. Richard A. Winslow; Vice-chairman, Mr. Eugene Wadman; Secretary, Mrs. Willard G. Hatch; Treasurer, Mr. Winthrop A. Clarke. The Ad-

Mass. S.P.C.A. Urges All to Remember The Birds

Eric H. Hansen, President of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, 180 Longwood avenue, Boston, yesterday appealed to bird-lovers everywhere to help their feathered friends survive the extreme cold weather by putting out food for them. During the bitter cold days, particularly when the ground is covered with snow and ice, it is highly desirable that grain, bread crumbs, corn meal, etc., be spread where birds can reach them, thus eliminating the possibility of suffering which might result through lack of their natural diet.

"The most satisfactory method of putting out food for them," stated the Society head, "is to place it on a large board with a molding around the edge. In this way it is not scattered or lost."

"We cannot urge too strongly," concluded Mr. Hansen, "that everyone remember the birds, so that when spring arrives, these attractive creatures will be with us once again with their beauty and song."

a fine fellow, when you get to know him.

Honestly, it is rather discouraging to me sometimes. However, this is a New Year and we will hope for the best. There are plenty of real brains on Beacon Hill and a desire to make good.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:

There seems to be a cult hereabouts we might call the modern edition in 'Know-Nothings'. They teach and lead public opinion in the colleges and out. The officer organizations that do much to promote democracy. Yet they assume not to know what Federalism is, nor how there can be four or five organizations working to spread this knowledge and to apply the principles of federal democracy to world affairs in a world organization.

This knowledge has long been free to all in readable form from any of these groups. It was immortalized in THE FEDERALIST PAPERS, by the fathers of our country in a crisis similar to ours. This book, chief of the world's 'great books', is one we all need crucially to study, yet most of us are too busy with amusements to read even a chapter. Our Know-Nothings doubtless were exposed to the book in college. (There are many sinners who read the Bible regularly.) But today they are not aware that the principles of Federalism are not only applicable to the nations in this already-one-world, but essential to their very existence.

Another group, even more numerous, consists of those who know-it-all. To their credit be it said that many of them worked heroically to bolster the League of Nations when that might have been made into a going concern. But their political acumen seems to have dissolved with that organization. These worthies are still rooting for a League, by trying to keep the UN untouched. Their idea of world order is not bad as far as it goes: teach our children how other children eat, sleep, dress and dance. Teach other children the American 'way of life', which our editors, authors and poets seem to think consists of 'ham-sandwiches', 'a little tree on a hill', 'the lazy cat of street and store', the settler hacking fiercely at the primeval forest, 'small things remembered', etc.

But all such items are duplicated by each people in its own version. They are the variables — not the constants. They are interesting, but no clue to what we all hold in common from Carle to the sea to Port Arthur. The things we hold in common is our equal desire and necessity to survive, and for this reason to equip for war, by establishing representative World Government.

We did not sacrifice six times as many priceless young lives in this war as in World War One in order to eat hot-dogs in our own peculiar way. The American way of life is no cobweb of triviality. It is our brand of the political wisdom of the ages; our embodiment of the spirit of democracy in a federal process and appropriate institutions. We thought we were fighting to save our chance to live in and by a democratic federalism. We won the chance, but it is still only a chance. We still must wage moral and intellectual battle to preserve and perfect such government. It is the most precious thing in America.

Curiously our Know-it-alls know everything but this, — the meaning and worth of the federal principle in history. And they ask those who do know this to hold their horses while they take time out to study the subject.

Between the Know-Nothings and the Know-it-alls our common citizen has to fight his way out of considerable fog. Ignorance makes for misunderstanding and bad feeling in any community, especially in the World Community. Yet it is never our petty dis-

GAY CONFUSION — Dennis Day is all tangled up — as usual — as he and Sharon Douglas attend a New Year's Eve celebration. Sharon plays Mildred Anderson, Dennis's girl friend, on NBC's "A Day in the Life of Dennis Day." Dennis is cast as a soda clerk in the midwestern town of Weaverville. The program moves from Thursday to Wednesday nights (effective Dec. 25).

Newton Newcomers Club

The Newton Newcomers' Club celebrated their Fifth Anniversary at their annual Christmas Party held at the Newton Centre Women's Club on Friday, December 21st.

A five-tier birthday cake was centered in the beautifully decorated tea table. Mrs. C. Roy Rook and Mrs. Carl Albrecht presided. The Club's President, Mrs. Stanley O. Robinson, presented corsages to Mrs. Charles W. Corkum and Mrs. Herbert J. Ham, Charter members, and spoke a few words in fond memory of Mrs. Charles Clark, founder of the Newcomers' Club. After a brief business meeting, the remainder of the afternoon was spent playing bridge. High scores were made by Mrs. C. Roy Rook, Mrs. Milton Minto, Mrs. Edward Currier, Mrs. Jefferson Borden and Mrs. Gladys Dillon.

likes that bring on war. It is only our total lack of supra-national government that can lead to mass annihilation. And it may be depended upon to do just this. Unless we the people, in spite of the blind guides, care enough for the survival of the human race to wade neck-high through the gobbledegook of editors and authors till we reach the shore of sound thinking and plain talk. Unless we the common people teach ourselves, at whatever cost, to understand the principles of federal democracy, to which there is no alternative but tyranny. And unless America, after 150 years of adolescent go-getting sets seriously about the task of educating itself, and learns to reaffirm these principles in terms of One interdependent and endangered world.

He has risen from the contemporary equivalent of a paper carrier in the Orson Wells' modern dress production of "Julius Caesar" to the position of playwright-producer-director. Mr. Kennedy is a witty and charming speaker. A social hour will follow the meeting.

Income Tax Information
By Denis W. Delaney
Collector of Internal Revenue

The tax-reduction features of our present revenue law will be clearly evident for the first time in the Federal income tax returns made this year.

The Revenue Act of 1945, applicable to 1946 incomes, contains several provisions that make the reduction effective as they are applied to the normal tax, the surtax, and the credits for both.

While the normal tax rate of three percent on individuals has been retained for the purpose of a tentative computation, this amount is subject to a flat reduction of five percent.

The surtax or individuals provides for a uniform cut of three percent in each surtax bracket, so that the rate on the first $2000 on taxable income in excess of exemptions is now 17 percent instead of 20, and the maximum stops at 83 were it formerly was 91. In addition to the three percent reductions in each surtax bracket, there is a flat reduction of five percent in the total surtax computed.

Another tax-reducing feature of this law is that individuals now are allowed the same exemptions for normal tax as they were allowed for surtax purposes under the previous act.

NEWTON FIRE DEPARTMENT

FIRE PREVENTION SERVICE

In past years the general public was not particularly interested in fire prevention. Loss of life was not uncommon and destruction of property was rather general. If such disregard on the part of the public had continued there is no telling what the present losses would have been, in this age of new materials and processes.

To illustrate, we could go back to the early years of this century, when the film industry was new. No laws were extant covering nitro-cellulose film, the hazard of which soon became manifested to such an extent that many people wanted to ban its use entirely. Today, with millions of feet in use, it is being manufactured, stored and used with safety to the workers and to the public. Much of the safety program originated in the industry, but no industry alone could accomplish these improvements. It was the enactment of laws and regulations, and their enforcement by state and city officials that brought about safety.

This brings up the question as to the greatest need today in the field of fire prevention. That need is a vital interest on the part of the public, and especially of business leaders, in the adoption of fire prevention ordinances, and the organization of a well formed bureau to see to its enforcement.

New materials always brings new problems in fire protection, but even more important is the problem of preventing these materials from being the cause of serious fires.

There are other new materials, and new methods of using old materials, which may be the cause of tragedy if developed without suitable study of fire prevention methods to be adopted for their use. Just what the field of plastics and synthetic rubber may develop to or what hazards they will involve, are questions that have already had much consideration and will need more study. One of the newer metals in use in industry is magnesium. Because of its use in warfare as part of an incendiary bomb, great fear has been expressed of a severe hazard involved in its sale and storage, and from its use in the home. Much of this fear is unfounded. It will not ignite and burn as readily as wood, nor does it give off poisonous vapors. Some difference in fire fighting methods may be necessary, but primarily the hazard is somewhat like that of any combustible and must be cared for in its manufacture and storage, along with conventional lines of limiting the quantity of maintaining good housekeeping and of providing automatic sprinkler protection.

Fire prevention and protection are slow evolutions brought about by the need of protecting the public. Of the two, prevention is the most worthwhile; in its widest sense it not only includes care to keep fires from starting but it must also provide against the spread of fire, and include discovery and automatic extinguishment. The adoption of fire prevention codes and their enforcement are efforts which must be supported by all those interested in conserving the wealth of the nation and the lives of the people. It is the duty of everyone to help prevent unnecessary fires due to carelessness and poor housekeeping in their home or place of business.

This New Year when you make your list of resolutions, include at least one resolve that will help prevent fires, this will help reduce the loss of life and property. If you smoke, also resolve to cultivate safe smoking habits, as smoking is the largest cause of fires. By doing these things you will in some measure really help to make it a Happy and Prosperous New Year for everyone.

Following the usual business meeting at which the president, Mrs. Frank L. Ogilvie, will preside, the program will be turned over to the American Home Class, Mrs. Francis H. McCrudden, leader. The meeting will open with musical selections, played by a talented member of the Class, Mrs. William L. Warner. Then the well-known authority on ancestral lore, Kathleen Emerson Blaney, will tell the fascinating story of "Godey's Lady's Book," illustrating it with amusing excerpts from the book itself, and with unusual old costumes, which will be modelled by members of the American Home Class. The refreshments, which will follow the program, will be prepared and served by members of the class, with Mrs. Francis H. McCrudden and Mrs. Alfred E. Thayer the pourers at the tea table. The special guests of the day will be Mrs. Daniel A. McKay, Chairman of the American Home Division of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, and the chairmen of the American Home Committees of neighboring clubs.

THE NEW
B.F. Goodrich Silvertown
IS WORTH THE WAIT

The new Silvertown tires have been setting records for long mileage, safety and economy not only on test fleets, police cars and special race cars but in regular car owner use.

These new tires are built with a broader, flatter tread that puts more rubber in contact with the road, spreading the wear over a larger area. To hold this heavier tread, B.F. Goodrich engineers developed a 35% stronger cord body with stronger cords and more of them... This meant better bruise resistance, greater safety.

If you want the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES, place your order today. A little wait will be rewarded with today's biggest money's worth in tires.

The Newton Board of Aldermen at the meeting held on Thursday evening, January 2, approved the recommendation made by Mayor Paul M. Goddard that city employees be given an increase of 10 per cent of their base pay, with a maximum of $500. This raised the so-called cost of living bonus from 15 to 25 per cent and the maximum from $300 to $500. To cover the cost of the bonuses an appropriation of $700,000 was passed for the Executive Department and $35,000 for the Water Department.

The action of the Board had no connection with the petitions for permanent increases in pay which have been filed with the mayor by every department of the city.

Mayor Goddard has indicated that he will recommend provision for permanent increases in salaries in the budget and that regardless of the time that the (Continued on Page 4)

Cost Of Accidents

What do we pay for our traffic accidents?

In Lansing, Michigan, a town of 75,000 population, the total cost to those involved in traffic accidents during the past year was $414,330. Total direct costs, including maintenance of police, courts, etc., totaled about three-quarters of a million dollars.

What does it mean?

It means that what happened in Lansing, happens in other cities throughout the country—it can also happen here!

It means that the current asking price for one medium-sized smashup is enormous. Not only in terms of dollars and cents but also in terms of man-hours lost from the job.

In terms of cold hard cash the average victim—and this applies everywhere—loses $170 in salary, pays $92 doctor and hospital bills plus $26 miscellaneous bills, such as attorney fees, fines and settlement of other parties' claims, and is stuck with a $220 auto repair bill as well if he is a car owner.

That's the average cost of driving and walking carelessly according to a study of the costs of traffic accidents made at Lansing by the National Conservation Bureau and the local safety council.

Average costs paid, if you are in an accident, are as follows: Uninjured Drivers pay $73, Injured Drivers pay $408, Injured Passengers pay $206, and Injured Pedestrians pay $468.

Can you afford it?

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

Political Problem

Alderman William R. Mattson of 28 Brookdale Road, Newtonville, by the use of a special-delivery stamp, was the first reader to reach your columnist with the correct answer to last week's quiz. He wins the carton of cigarettes (Philip Morris is his choice). The second correct answer, also received by special delivery, came from the President of the Board of Aldermen, Joseph B. Jamieson. In each case, a very friendly and appreciative letter accompanied the answers. Another correct list of names followed the first two, but, inasmuch as the name signed at the bottom of the letter does not appear in either the telephone book or in the Newton directory, I assume that it was some wag who preferred to remain anonymous.

Here are the correct names to cover the prominent citizens whose initials were published in this space last week: Douglas B. Francis, Carl F. Schipper, Jr., Theodore R. Lockwood, Hugh S. Boyd, Maynard Hutchinson, Joseph B. Jamieson, Roy S. Edwards, Charles Raymond Cabot, Charles B. Floyd, Wilfred Chagnon, Dennis M. Cronin and Richard H. Lee.

What do these men have in common, even though some of them may not realize it? Every one of them has been mentioned by quite a few people as a potential candidate for Mayor of Newton to succeed our present Mayor, Paul M. Goddard, who is definitely out of the running for this fall. The only two men who have actually campaigned for this office are Messrs. Boyd and Cronin. The others, in most cases, have a substantial number of political admirers who give these men more than casual publicity.

That reminds me that two other sets of initials were suggested by readers of this column. They are L. P. and J. S. W. Frankly I had not heard the first man's name mentioned in this connection. The second man's name had come to my attention just a few weeks ago, but in the rush of Christmas activities it was momentarily forgotten.

One final word. Four of these men have told some of their closest political friends that they are not available for one reason or another. Every one of the four would make a first-class Mayor. I won't write them off my books at this early date.

Our Governor's Address

Obviously, the most striking feature of the inaugural address of Governor Robert F. Bradford was its refreshing frankness and the manner in which the Governor took the people into his confidence and painted for them a true-to-life picture of the state's financial condition. Why did he do it?

My guess is this. We have had many inaugurals, Republican and Democratic alike, which have suggested that the state was in trouble or headed that way and that new taxes would have to be imposed. This is the first time within the writer's recollection that a complete, overall picture has been painted in such a simple manner that any man or woman with reasonable intelligence can understand it. We know now just where we stand and what the relationship is between the state itself and the numerous cities and towns. We know just how much the state will be in the red and how much the cities and towns will be in the red. It is a rather drab picture, but it is high time that all of us realize that rising costs and increased demands for governmental services are going to force us to pull in our belts, devise economies all along the line and increase revenues wherever possible. Furthermore, from now on we must INSIST ON EFFICIENCY in governmental services. All forms of waste, duplication and over-lapping must be eliminated as rapidly as possible.

Other features of the Governor's address require comment, which will be made from week to week. It was a very excellent piece of work and a good start for the New Year.

President Truman's Message

There has not been sufficient time to digest Mr. Truman's state of the Union message at this writing. However one point is significant. That is that the President appears to have adopted a strategy in the matter of governmental policy which may well cause headaches among the G.O.P. leaders. Ever since the death of Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Truman seems to have been gradually swinging more and more to the right. Such a movement, of course, involves a gradual departure from the domestic policies of Mr. Truman's late chief. It is one of the reasons why we are witnessing the formation of two different liberal organizations of county-wide scope. One is the ADA and the other is the PCA. More about them both later on.

Getting back to the G.O.P., it is apparent that Messrs. Taft, Vandenberg, Martin et al., not to mention Messrs. Stassen, Dewey, Warren, Bricker, Saltonstall and Lodge, may soon find themselves in an embarrassing position. The President's middle-of-the-road position will either force them too far to the right for their own good or else their own policies will seem much like Mr. Truman's.

P.W.C.

Louise Laffey, Director of Burrough's Foundation

Miss Louise Laffey of 117 Beaumont Avenue, Newtonville, who organized the Elizabeth Seaton Girls Club at the Corpus Christi Parish in Auburndale in 1939, will be director of the Newton Extension Club of the Burrough's Newsboys Foundation, located nearly 20 years on Beacon Hill in Boston.

Miss Laffey graduated from the Newton High School in the Class of 1944 and during the war she was chief hostess of the United Service Organization for the Burrough's newsboys Foundation. She was also employed at the Boston Port of Embarkation as private secretary in the overseas division. Guest speaker at the first January meeting of the Newton club on January 7 at the Newton Athletic Association building on Dalby Street, was Sidney S. Raichur, Indian student studying for his doctorate in religious education at Boston University.

All newboys and street traders and their friends in the Newton area are invited to join the club which will meet Tuesday evening. A large number of projects will be begun to interest the boys and they are permitted to visit Foundation headquarters on certain nights to take advantage of the extensive facilities.

Pearson.

At the request of many, who delighted in his recent talk at the Celebrity Breakfast, Mr. Pearson has consented to speak of his personal experiences in becoming the writer of country flavor and nature editorials in the week-day issue of the New York Times. A firm believer in vegetables with oomph, and turnips with personality, Mr. Pearson's most recent volume, "The Country Man's Cookbook" is winning unusual praise. His "Successful Part-Time Farming" is to be published in March, and "Sea Flavor," companion story to "Country Flavor" is to be brought out in early summer.

An additional attraction for the Workshop Group will be the money prize offered to members for the best short story of 3000 words or less.

As usual, Mrs. Francis J. Flagg, chairman of the Literature Committee will preside. All members planning to attend are urged to notify the hostess, Mrs. Van Gorder.

—In recent years farmers have paid about $200,000,000 annually in automobile and truck licenses, drivers' permits Federal and State gasoline taxes, and Federal use taxes.

Local Residents on Youth Hostels Finance Committee

Newton members of the finance committee of the campaign to raise $10,000 for the Boston Council of American Youth Hostels, include: Loomis Patrick of 855 Chestnut street, Waban; Mrs. T. D. Butler of Chestnut Hill and R. H. Loomis, 190 Forest Avenue, West Newton.

From a modest beginning in 1935, the American Youth Hostels has grown to over 250 chartered hostels from coast to coast. Last summer, under its auspices, one hundred American boys and girls were among the first group of civilians allowed to visit Europe where they helped in reconstruction work in Holland, Belgium and France for ten weeks.

continuing in force under revised salary schedules.

In addition, Mayor Paul M. Goddard has announced a 1947 cost-of-living bonus for all city employees of 25% to a maximum of $500, which is an increase of $200 over the 1946 cost-of-living bonus.

In 1942, Newton adopted a Preparation-type Salary Schedule, with maximum salaries based on amount of education and length of experience. However, the maximum salary for women teachers not possessing four years of training continued to be $2000 and $2200, as established 15 years previously. In 1945, the 1942 schedule was revised upward, and since then Newton teachers have been advancing toward new maximum salaries, depending upon amount of training and experience. The special adjustments in basic salary for 1947, exclusive of the city-wide cost-of-living bonus, will result in raising the median basic salary for classroom teachers to $2750.

The minimum salary for beginning women teachers with the Bachelor's degree has been raised to $1600, which, when increased by the 25% cost-of-living bonus, will mean a total compensation of at least $2000 in 1947. The first step on the men's schedule is $1800, which, with the bonus, yields a beginning compensation of $2250. Beginning compensations, including the bonus, for teachers with advanced training are as follows:

Women with one year of training beyond Bachelor's degree—$2125.

Women with two years of training beyond Bachelor's degree—$2250.

Men with one year of training beyond Bachelor's degree—$2375.

Men with two years of training beyond Bachelor's degree—$2500.

Commander-elect Arthur L. Swett of the Jewish War Veterans, and John Milekuk of the Marine Corps League. The committee was instructed to report on State and Federal funds which may be available for housing.

Plans were started to procure adequate quarters for the various veterans' groups and it was decided to form a committee for that purpose. Meetings of the organization will be called as required.

Chairman Walsh reported on the progress of the various veterans' housing projects being studied by the group.

Savings Bank Insurance Reports A Record Year

More new Savings Bank Life Insurance was written in Massachusetts during 1946 than in any previous year since the system was established in Massachusetts in 1907, bringing the present total of insurance in force to approximately $300,000,000, it was announced by William B. Snow Jr., President of the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council, following a meeting of officials of the thirty-two Savings Banks which underwrite this insurance in Massachusetts. The present total represents a gain of more than $30,000,000 over the amount in force a year ago.

Dividends on Savings Bank Life Insurance policies during this year will be continued on the same basic scale as was paid in 1946, Mr. Snow reported.

Reviewing last year's results, he said: "Mortality returned to the low pre-war levels, with actual death claims only 36.3% of the amounts provided for in the premiums. Interest earnings declined slightly below last year. Despite rising costs, our insurance expenses continued remarkably low, reflecting the benefits of the Savings Bank Life Insurance method of over-the-counter merchandizing. Total assets of the system rose during the year to a new high.

"The increase in new sales was a result of many heads of families increasing the amount of protection on themselves and on children, now that $1000 of Savings Bank Life Insurance may be obtained without medical examination, on children in good health at ages from one month to 15 years. Savings-Insurance Package Plans which combine a savings account with low-cost Savings Bank Life Insurance for a single deposit each month, are also gaining in popularity."

Letter Indicates Red Cross Services Appreciated

The following letter just received from a former West Newton boy aboard the Bremerhaven in Germany, indicates what the work of the Committee of Services to Camps and Hospitals has accomplished. It has been announced by Mr. John Wheelock, Coordinating chairman of this committee, that letters have gone out this week in an effort to find out which organizations in Newton are interested in continuing their services to both civilian and veteran hospitals and other programs such as Christmas on the high seas.

Lawrence Kellogg, Jr., of the U. S. Army Transport, "Henry Gibbs", writes, "I would like to thank you for thinking of us who are away from home at this time but there are many more who are spending Christmas at sea or in some foreign port. Your thoughtfulness has made Christmas Day much different from the sameness of all other days. I am sure that the feelings of those who will not write you go with mine in this letter."

CANCER AND THE CAMEL

According to an old fable, there was a camel and he got his nose under the edge of the tent pleading with the kind-hearted Bedouin that he had no shelter. Well, everyone knows the ending of the tale; pretty soon the camel had the whole tent and the well-meaning but foolish woman on the outside, looking in.

Cancer is no camel. It's a killer that lurks in the lives of all of us, ready to sneak in if we are not alert. But its end result might remind you of the fable, because cancer in its early stages can be mighty deceitful. A slight irritation on the skin first gives little discomfort. Unless medical attention is promptly received, the whole body becomes inhabited with cancer and the day comes, sadly enough, when you might as well fold your tent like the Arab because advanced cancer means almost certain death.

A skin irritation is only one of the signs that the camel has his nose under the edge of the tent. There are numerous others such as a painless lump especially in the breast, lip or tongue; persistent indigestion; a progressive change in the color, or size of a wart or a mole; any radical change in normal body habits; hoarseness that fails to clear up quickly or an unexplained cough; bloody discharge from any of the natural body openings; and finally any sore that does not heal.

In the case of the camel, all the Arab lost was his tent. In the case of cancer, you lose your life. Watch for these signs and above all have a thorough medical examination at least once a year.

In order that a bond issue may be raised, the sum of $43,000 was set aside for the sewer construction account and to complete the sewer on Kent road and private land an additional $1,000 was appropriated.

A request from Street Commissioner Harold F. Young for $100,000 for new equipment was held in committee.

The board authorized City Solicitor Bartlett to draw up a bill to be presented to the State Legislature providing that unused sums collected by the State be distributed proportionately to the communities in which the money was collected. Newton's share of this money would be approximately $70,000, collected by the state for a sewer project, and not used.

The city also seeks action by the State Legislature for permission to pay the sum of $1,466 to Lester Reed of Auburndale who was injured in May 1942 by a Fire Department truck while he was a member of the A. R. P. Auxiliary Fire Department, this amount to reimburse him for medical bills deducting hospital service credits.

A permit to build a garage at 175 North street, Newtonville was granted to the McDonald Bros., and to conduct and maintain a gasoline filling station, repair shop and install two underground tanks with pumps, 4,000 gallons capacity each for the storage of gasoline, and for storage of motor oil, 200 gallon maximum quantity at one time.

A permit to sell firearms at the Beehive, 287 Centre street, Newton was granted to Ira S. Moe providing that the barrels be over 16 inches in length, this prohibiting the sale of small arms.

A second hand auto dealer license was granted Gordon W. Rowe, 14-20 Union street, Newton Centre, and renewals were given the Chestnut Hill Garage and C. S. Collins, Inc. Auctioneer license renewals were given Samuel W. Macey, Eugene J. Conroy and J. Frederick Clune. A junk collector's license was approved for Clement Palen, 24 Pembroke street, Newton.

Certificates of incorporation were approved for Charles D. White, Electrical Manufacturers Representatives Club of New England, and for Ernest W. Kuebler, the Anna Weld Perkins Unitarian Memorial, Inc.

117th Year Best In Bank's History

At the annual meeting of the Newton Savings Bank, held January 6th at Brae Burn Country Club, Joseph Earl Perry, President of the bank expressed the belief that the year just passed was the best in the bank's hundred and seventeen years of community service.

In terms of growth the resources increased approximately three and a half million dollars and now exceeds $31,000,000 with a surplus on December 31st of $2,778,105 in the banking department and assets of $1,331,771 in the life insurance department.

Next March the bank will celebrate the completion of ten years as an issuing bank for savings bank life insurance. During the past calendar year its outstanding insurance increased 18.6 per cent to a total of $12,386,750. In the same year the personal loan department increased 119 per cent, and the mortgage department showed a net increase of nearly $300,000 in outstanding mortgages in spite of payments and reductions of loans amounting to more than $2,000,000 during the year. For another year the bank led all other lenders in the number and volume of residential mortgages taken in the city of Newton.

During the past three years the deposits and resources of the bank have grown more than 35 per cent and the assets in the life insurance department have grown 70 per cent.

In commenting on this growth the president said that growth for its own sake was not an objective of the bank, though as a measure of increased service it was gratifying, but the most satisfactory development of all was the constant improvement in the quality of the assets of the bank.

The net profit from operations, after paying operating expenses, and dividends at the rate of 2 per cent for the year, was $196,737.

The outstanding event of the year was the opening of the banking office in Wellesley on July 1, 1946. The Treasurer, Benjamin F. Louis, has been in charge of that office and report.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Doherty Observe 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Doherty of 97 Glen Avenue, Newton Centre, observed their 50th wedding anniversary on Friday evening, January 3, with a family reunion at the Hotel Vendome, Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Doherty were married in the Church of Our Lady, Newton, by Rev. John Gilfeather, who was then pastor of the church. They resided in Newtonville for 40 years before moving to Newton Centre. On the previous day an attempt had been made to cash two forged G. I. checks at a Newton Centre liquor store and on being refused the young man drove away in a car in the direction of Waban, but the number of the car was noted by the store clerk who notified authorities, and the car was later found parked near police headquarters in West Newton.

On Wednesday afternoon, not long after Inspector King of the Police Department had warned the West Newton Wine Shop to be on the lookout, a well dressed young man entered their store and purchased two bottles of expensive liquor, and after at first taking out cash to pay for the same, asked the clerk if he would cash a check for him. The clerk, George D. Guzzi, said he would but asked him if he would wait until he had waited on two other customers. Meanwhile another clerk, Herbert F. Bearse, notified the police and Patrolmen John Gegan and Cornelius Dwyer came into the store and invited the young man to come to headquarters where they told him a man who knew him was waiting to see him.

He was held at Police Headquarters until Secret Service agents arrived and to them he admitted forging nine checks which they found on his person, and also admitted forging and cashing several other checks.

Rev. Byrne to Lecture at Newton Catholic Club

Rev. Patrick J. Byrne, Maryknoll missionary who has just returned to the United States after 12 years in the Far East, and who is said to be the best informed Catholic priest in America on Japan, will reveal the story of Christianity in that country at a lecture to be given by him at the Newton Catholic Club on Sunday evening, January 12 at 8 p.m., sponsored by St. Bernard's Holy Name Society.

A graduate of St. Charles College in Maryland and of St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore, Fr. Byrne was ordained by Archbishop Bonzano in the Chapel of the College of the Immaculate Conception, Washington, D. C., on June 23, 1915. He was appointed prefect apostolic of Peng Yang on Nov. 8, 1927, and was assigned to Japan in 1934. While being confined by the Japanese to his rectory in Kyoto during the war he compiled a Japanese-English grammar.

Since the end of the war he served as an advisor to Gen. Douglas MacArthur and last July conducted a tour of Japan for Bishop O'Hara of Buffalo and Bishop Grady of Columbus, who were the legates of Pope Pius.

In Japan, Fr. Byrne has stated: "Before the war the average Catholic mission had two to three converts a year. Now there's a procession coming to the rectory and we're instructing adults in classes of 40. Even university students, a notoriously irreligious group, are forming study clubs on Christianity. In one week two Buddhist priests, a Shinto priest, men who were heads of temples; and a retired rear admiral called at the rectory to ask me what Christianity was all about. One of our priests in Kyoto goes to lecture in a Buddhist temple every week and is also professor of philosophy at a Buddhist University."

The Rev. John J. Crane, S.T.L., pastor of St. Bernard's Church, has invited all parishioners to attend the lecture.

Former P. M. Editor To Speak Here

The dinner, catered by Seiler, will be open to members and their guests and women will be admitted after the dinner at 8 p.m. to listen to Mr. Ingersoll. George Dietz, President of the Brotherhood, announced that advance reservations indicate that this meeting will exceed in attendance any previous meeting the Brotherhood has ever had.

Harold Brown, Chairman of the program committee, will preside at the meeting and introduce the speakers.

Bigelow Junior High School News

The ninth grade dramatic club is having tryouts for the various roles in "The Trysting Place," by Booth Tarkington, which they hope to present at the annual dramatic assembly. The club has voted to have five cent dues to help buy properties for the plays they produce. New officers have recently been elected: President Henry McQueen; vice president, Nancy Dillon; secretary, Adrienne Knight; treasurer, Patricia Mattson.

Bigelow Junior High School students are again attending the Youth Concerts given by the Boston Symphony orchestra. A group of students who have attended previous concerts, accompanied by several who are attending for the first time, have already heard the first and second concert of the six-concert program which is under the direction of Conductor Wheeler Beckett. The ninth season of the concert is attracting wide interest in the Boston area, with student listeners sending in requests for musical numbers to be presented on future programs. The Youth Concerts Association aims to present the best type of music and to further study of selections and techniques which are a part of the regular Junior High School music course. Bigelow students follow the music featured at the Youth Concerts and prepare themselves for appreciation of the concerts through study of selections to be given on subsequent programs. This year, 41 greater Boston communities are represented in the student audience.

Mr. Harold W. Beattie, who taught ninth grade French and Social Studies during the fall term, has left Bigelow to resume graduate study at Boston University. Mr. William Panttaja, 7th grade social studies teacher, recently resigned his position and is now connected with the F.B.I. Washington.

Samples of paper sculpture work done in 7th, 8th and 9th grades are decorating the exhibit cabinet at the present time. Winter sport pictures in crayon represent 1D's work in art class.

The 7th grade home economics classes are studying nutrition and cookery, the 8th grade is having mending lessons and the 8th and 9th grade elective groups are making blouses and dresses.

Discusses Radio Before K. of C.

Harry D. Goodwin, 1176 Washington street, Auburndale, who is promotion, merchandising, and publicity director of station WCOP, Boston, was guest speaker at the January 7, meeting of the Arlington Knights of Columbus. Mr. Goodwin described behind-the-scenes in radio, and his discussion was followed by a special engineering exhibit, arranged by WCOP, and explained at the meeting by Ralph Warren, assistant chief engineer.

B. C. Hockey Coach Lauds Bernie Burke

Bernie Burke of Newton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard M. Burke of 29 Richmond road, Newton, has been rated by Coach John "Snooks" Kelley, Boston College hockey mentor, with the best net-tenders Boston College has ever had, and as Coach Kelley expresses it "If he keeps improving at anywhere near his present rate he will be the best goalie Boston College has ever had, and that's really saying a mouthful, because we've had more than our share of great collegiate goalies. He was very responsible for our win over Harvard last week and in fact he has been red-hot for the past few weeks. I'm mighty glad we have a fellow like him around."

While at Boston College High Burke was all-scholastic goalie for three consecutive years. He played hockey all four years at B. C. High and came to Boston College in time for the 1942-43 season. Phil Carey was B. C.'s goalie at that time and Burke saw very little action that year, and at the end of the season he entered the Navy and became a member of a beach battalion. During his three years in the Navy he served in Italy, France and Okinawa.

Up until the Dartmouth game this season there had been a three way battle for the starting net-minder's spot between Norm Dailey, John Skinner and Burke. Skinner up to that time had held the edge because of his extra experience. Kelley, however, decided to give Burke a chance to show what he could do against one of the best college teams in the country, especially as Burke had been doing great work in the nets during practice sessions throughout the week previous. Burke passed the test with flying colors allowing the Indians only four goals in a fast contest and last week topped off his work to date with his great performance against Harvard.

The Weeks Junior High School

The majority of the pupils of the Weeks Junior High School trudged regretfully back to school on Thursday, the day after New Year's. The several inches of new snow and the drizzling rain did not take away from their pleasant memories of the past vacation. They again ventured into their various homes, renewed their friendships, and started back to classes to begin a new year in their education.

Friday's assembly was a musical one which was announced by Dan Crowley. It started off by the student body singing some old familiar songs such as "There's A Long, Long Trail Awaiting" and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." Others were sung intermittently throughout the program. There were instrument solos—on the cello and on the violin; on the oboe by Joanna Williams; and on the bassoon by Elliot Kaplan. The Rosary, a duet on the trumpets, was played by Grace Marchan and Donald Duguid. Peter Gavian sang several solos among which was Old Man River. A group of singers sang the lyrics of various songs while the student body joined in on the choruses. The singers were Peter Gavian, Dan Crowley, Jim Roth, Lyman Fogg, Donald Duguid and Robert Stewart.

The first order of class pins arrived and were distributed to the ninth grade pupils who had ordered at the beginning of the year.

SAVE FOR A SUNNY DAY!

Are you one who takes a gloomy view of saving — thinks of it only as protection against a "rainy day"? It's that, too, of course—but a savings bank book can be a nice, cheerful thing to have around a house, too.

Look into yours! See how the balance is mounting week by week, month by month, year by year! Think what it can mean—the down-payment on that home you dream of, a new car, travel, better education for the children! Pleasant thoughts, all of them, aren't they?

"BUT I HAVEN'T GOT A SAVINGS BANK PASSBOOK!"

Don't say that! Instead, why not come in today and open a savings account? Deposit regularly and soon you, too, will have that "little extra" that makes the difference between living—and just existing! Begin saving now for a future of sunny days!

Mayor Paul M. Goddard was the first local contributor to the 1947 March of Dimes, the annual fund raising drive of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis which is being conducted on a nationwide basis from January 15 to 30. The contribution is being made to William J. Payne, Vice President, Newton National Bank, Treasurer of the Newton campaign committee of which Mr. Thomas V. Cleveland is Chairman. An interested spectator of the proceedings is Mrs. Leo P. Baldwin, chairman of the collection in the public schools. Bill Cunningham, of Newton is chairman of the Massachusetts campaign.

National leaders report that the 1947 campaign will be of utmost importance as 1946 had the worst epidemic since 1916 and the emergency funds of the organization have been depleted and need replacement to meet future needs. As a mark of progress against this dread disease it should be noted that the death rate as compared with 1916 was reduced from 25% to 5%, the crippling effects being similarly reduced. Public contributions have made possible a great re-

Mayor Goddard Will Not Seek Fifth Term

Mayor Paul M. Goddard announced on Tuesday that he will not be a candidate for re-election to the office of mayor at the next city election.

Mayor Goddard who is now serving his fourth term as chief executive of the city, formerly served as alderman and as state representative from Newton. At the expiration of his present term he plans to devote his time to the insurance business which he conducts at 50 Federal Street, Boston.

Editor's Note: In the Nov. 28, 1946 issue of the Graphic, P.W.C. stated in the column "Politics with Color" "I predict that Newton will have a new mayor come January 1948. As a matter of fact, I think there is very little chance that Mayor Paul M. Goddard will even attempt to secure a fifth term."

Christmas Seal Sales Total More Than $9600.00

Miss M. Elizabeth Kilburn, Newton's Christmas Seal Sale chairman, reported today returns totaling $9,605.71 at the end of the seventh week of the annual drive to raise funds for the tuberculosis control program of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association. The drive will continue until March 31.

At the present time the money raised in last year's sale of Christmas Seals is being spent by the Association in providing illustrated health talks to Newton clubs, free chest X-rays for employees of Newton's larger industries, personal counseling and job training for tuberculosis patients and their families, and other health education and rehabilitation services.

This week the local Seal Sale chairman are mailing follow-up post cards to former regular purchasers of Christmas Seals, to remind them that although Christmas has passed, contributions are still acceptable. The cards read, "Christmas is over but not tuberculosis! It's not too late to pay for Tuberculosis Christmas Seals."

Hon. J.S. Whittemore Chairman of Local Red Cross Fund

Hon. John S. Whittemore of Newtonville has for the second time been appointed chairman of the Newton Red Cross Fund Campaign. It has been announced by the Chapter chairman, Mr. Charles B. Floyd. Mr. Whittemore has had wide experience in previous drives and in many other civic affairs.

With Newton's undragging generosity and interest in worthy causes, Mr. Whittemore has no question that the city will more than reach its share of the Greater Boston goal of $1,280,000. It is to be remembered that while the American Red Cross is the first of the great war time agencies to reduce its asking, 95 percent of the national budget still goes for services to the armed forces and to veterans. The local program has in no sense returned to pre-war activity, and the co-operation of Newton citizens is urgently needed.

On February 23, Red Cross Sunday, will be observed in the local churches and the campaign itself will extend from February 27 to March 26.

A veteran of World War II, he was called to duty as a captain and rose to the rank of lieutenant-colonel. He served in Germany as the military governor of a large area in the American zone. Competition Being Revived

Competition, in the traditional American sense of the word, pretty largely vanished during the war. Ceiling prices were also "base" prices, in that all producers and retailers had to work within the strict framework of OPA controls. Goods were scarce at best, and many items disappeared completely, due to the channeling of raw materials to the insatiable maw of the war machine. Low inventories precluded the possibility of seasonal and year-end sales on the pre-war scale.

But competition is regaining its old vigor, and that in itself is a guarantee that the consumer will get what he wants at the lowest price possible. Again, consumer discrimination is a wholesome sign—it indicates that the anything-at-any-price era, with its strong inflationary pressure, is drawing to a close. Finally, the growing insistence on the part of retailers for better quality goods, in all price brackets, is a great aid to consumers who are sick of the shoddy and the unreliable. The stores you patronize are eager to return to the old, competitive basis of doing business, and conditions are steadily improving.

Subsidized Transportation

There has been an increasing amount of comment on the cost of building and maintaining airports and their related facilities. The rapid growth of commercial air transportation has made a great many airports and terminals obsolete—and, as a result, communities find themselves faced with the prospect of investing enormous sums in tax dollars in new construction.

Much of the newspaper comment has contrasted the airlines with the railroads. If a railroad, for instance, had the termite to request a town to build it a station, using the money provided by all the taxpayers, it would be laughed out of existence. But that is precisely what communities do for the airlines in the case of airports, administration building and terminals.

One newspaper made a typical comment when it said, "Surely the time has come when, just as railroads were compelled to stand on their own feet, so should the aviation industry," another said: "As to new airports, it should be seriously considered whether the public has not gone as far as it should go in providing capital for construction and shouldering losses on operation."

The financial problem involved in this is a very real one, and it will grow as time wears on and more and larger planes overcrowd our airports. Every owner of taxable property is directly affected. There must be some equitable means of allocating the costs of airports and terminals between commercial and non-commercial users that will spare the taxpayer part of the heavy burden.

General Marshall

There appears to be general agreement that General George C. Marshall will make a worthy successor to James F. Byrnes as Secretary of State. To be sure, he has not had as broad or varied experience as the distinguished Southern, who has filled so many positions of great responsibility for several decades. Mr. Byrnes, furthermore, as a former Congressman and United States Senator, prior to his elevation to the Supreme Court, provided the desired link between Congress and the White House, with special reference to foreign affairs.

Why did Secretary Byrnes resign at this time? Was it because of ill-health, as many have suggested or was it because he did not always get along too well with President Truman? The only reason for giving this matter much consideration is that General Marshall would seem to have been placed in a very tough spot. To be sure, much of the gunwork of the peace treaties has been laid and the United Nations shows increasing signs of becoming a permanent and well-organized body. On the other hand, the German and Japanese treaties—most important of all—have not as yet been taken care of and our relations with the Soviet Union are still anything but perfect.

The other and brighter side of the picture is that General Marshall is much more than a brilliant General and military strategist. He has many of the qualities of a diplomat. He is a man of considerable vision and much more courage. Best of all, he knows Joseph Stalin and the Russian people at first hand. It is said that they respect and like him and are inclined to have more confidence in him than in many other Americans. That, if true, will be a tremendous help in the difficult months to come. Incidentally, we will find out in the next year or two if it is a good idea to have a military man as Secretary of State.

One final comment. As might be expected, the professional politicians in both parties are already toying with the idea that General Marshall might make a strong Presidential candidate. Maybe so; maybe not. It seems to me that the polls would be well advised to mind their own business for a while and let the incoming Secretary of State learn his new job. It will be hard enough under the most favorable circumstances. I wish him all the luck in the world.

Newtonian Honored

Governor Bradford thinks well of the citizens of Newton. Most of us already know his high opinion of Maynard Hutchinson, (the M. H. in my prize contest). Then we had his appointment of Loomis Patrick, a former Representative in the State Legislature. Now we have another former Representative, Douglas B. Francis, (the D. B. F. in the recent contest), appointed to the special committee created for the purpose of reviewing the present tax structure of the state and the cities and towns and for the further purpose of preparing recommendations for increasing the revenue of the state. If this Legislature follows through and enacts such legislation as may be suggested by this group of financial experts, we may, possibly, have a balanced state budget as well as a balanced budget in many of our cities and towns.

Plan E

Your columnist noted a brief news item in the papers recently which indicated that the Democratic candidate for State Senator last fall, Mr. Dorfman, was one of the leaders in the movement to bring Plan E to Newton. Perhaps this is going too far, as yet. Maybe the movement is still relatively quiet and unpublicized. My guess is that it will not be very long before we shall hear a good deal more about Plan E or one of the other, similar movements.

Messrs. Bilbo and Curley

Here in the North we get quite excited about the ideas and the political conduct of Senator Bilbo of Mississippi. We call for his immediate expulsion from the U. S. Senate. Repercussions are immediate and noisy. We are told to mind our own business. We are asked how we would like to be told by people in the South what kind of man to elect as Governor of Massachusetts or as U. S. Senator.

Right now such questions from the Southland are especially embarrassing. Our own Mr. James M. Curley appears to be giving us about all the undesirable publicity we can assimilate. After all, judged by Northern standards, is Mr. Curley on any higher plane than Mr. Bilbo? It is a pity that this Curley case could not have been handled as it would have been had the guilty person been you or me or any ordinary citizen of the United States. Can you imagine you or me being allowed to stall a conviction by a court for over a year and then proceed to have the gall to serve as Mayor of one of the biggest cities in the country? The question answers itself.

FIRE PREVENTION SERVICE

As an abstract subject fire prevention is of no interest to any of us. It is only when fires constitute loss of property or wealth or injury to the person that we become concerned with the question of fire prevention; for that reason it is really a misnomer to campaign for "fire prevention" when really it is "loss prevention" that is the live subject.

Some of these large losses occur in dwellings but only if there is an almost total destruction of the contents are of great value. Others occur in schools, churches, stores, factories, hotels, office buildings, piers and in fact in any structure which in itself is of high value or which contains great value of contents. These large losses are not restricted to any particular class of structure. Frame buildings burn, but so do those with brick walls, and the destruction to steel work in a building is always heavy where there is an interior fire and the steel is not protected by the proper insulation.

The destruction of the property reduces the taxable values and thus any loss prevention has a direct bearing on the taxes collectable. But this is not the only connection which loss prevention has on taxes. A study of these larger individual losses indicate several outstanding facts. These are that serious fire damage is primarily due to faulty building construction, not necessarily poor construction, nor construction of material that will burn, but rather faults from a fire spread standpoint. Open stairways and elevator shafts, etc. and non-fire-stopped recesses in walls and partitions all readily carry fire and smoke from floor to floor. All these vertical openings are flues for the rapid spread of fire.

Other facts are that many larger losses are incendiary. Others are due to various causes, such as improper electric wiring or equipment, poorly insulated heating devices, faulty chimneys, haphazard processes not properly safeguarded or not recognized, not protected and a general disregard of good housekeeping.

Heavy losses occur in only a few fires; in fact 50 to 75 per cent of the total loss in any city can be traced to 1 to 2 per cent of the total number of fires. Excessive area buildings are frequent total losses because of the inability of the fire department to fight a fire far in the

Mr. Geo. H. Ellis has secured twenty acres of pure ice on Lake Winnipiseogee to be brought here, unless ice is found here on Crystal Lake of sufficient thickness. He now has over three hundred tons brought from New Hampshire lakes two years ago.

The attention of the Brookline citizens is being directed to the comparative compensation paid their callmen of the fire department, with that paid by the adjoining places. Brookline pays $65 a year, says the Chronicle, while adjacent places pay as follows: Newton, $100; Brighton, $175; West Roxbury, $175; Dorchester, $200.

Ede's shooting gallery is closed, the proprietor's new business as mail carrier occupying his attention so completely as to interfere seriously with the former.

Fancy Harlequin Cream, a new creation in the caterer's art, has just been put on the market by Mr. Edwin I. Dill, the popular Newton and Waltham caterer. This new dish which consists of frozen pudding, sherbert, and any other two flavors, comes put up in 2 quart bricks, at a very reasonable figure.

We understand that considerable complaint has been made concerning the appearance of the new bridge at Walnut street, some even going so far as to say that it is a disgrace to the square. A railroad bridge at the best is not a thing of beauty, and this one was built with reference to strength, durability and comfort rather than to looks.

One of Richardson's market wagons broke down while in Boston last Friday evening. The wagon was considerably damaged and quantity of the goods damaged.

A fatal runaway accident occurred in this place Tuesday morning. Patrick Hurley of West Newton, employed by Patrick Fitzpatrick, was driving a team of horses attached to a wagon load of stones, on Lexington street near Walcott street, when the horses became suddenly unmanageable and started to run away. Hurley went to the animals heads to hold them, but lost his hold on the bit. The animals reared, somehow knocking him down beneath their feet. Two wheels of the team passed over his chest. He was picked up by bystanders and removed to the Newton Hospital, where he died Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

The next meeting will be held at the Work-Shop on Tuesday, January 21, at 8 p.m.

Auburndale Woman's Club

To meet the need of mothers of young children for responsible "sitters," Mrs. Harold Carnes, of the Community Service Committee of the Auburndale Women's Club has compiled a list of baby sitters in Auburndale. A nucleus of members of the Auburndale Girls Club has been augmented by volunteers to local over thirty girls of high school age or the last year in Junior High. These sitters have all agreed to abide by the following rules and rates which they set up themselves. When on duty, the sitter is limited to one visitor, with permission of the mother. Girls may not be in the evening if the mother is willing. Rates are set at 25 cents an hour up to midnight, 35 cents after midnight. If the time has been agreed upon. For overtime beyond the agreed hour, the girls ask 50 cents an hour. It is hoped this higher rate will discourage the parents from staying out later than contracted, a source of trouble to many a baby sitter and her parents. Fees will be arranged for extra duties beyond straight sitting. For various reasons the girls have decided not to go beyond Auburndale, although calls from other communities have already been received.

This list of girls may be considered an approved list, in as much as all members agree to abide by these rules, and a bad report to Mrs. Carnes by any employer would undoubtedly result in dropping the offender's name from the roster.

On the list also are the names of older women for those who desire adult care and judgment. There is one volunteer who will take grammar school children for lunch. One member operates a play school to accommodate children from the ages of two and a half to five, Monday, Wednesday, and Friday afternoons. The rates for the adult members are arranged separately.

Mrs. Carnes has sent her list to the ministers of Auburndale and to the Walker Missionary Home. It is also posted at the Auburndale Library and on the Auburndale Club Bulletin Board. Mrs. Carnes herself will answer inquiries at Lasell 2226. The list is not closed but open for volunteers who will agree to abide by the rules and rates.

The project proved its worth

Frank A. Day Junior High School News

Last Friday's assembly at Day Junior High School was a one-act comedy, "Nobody Home," given by the Ninth Grade Drama Group under the direction of Alden W. Read. The play was well presented and enjoyed by all the students.

Results of recent boys' basketball games are as follows: Grade 9—Room 20, 15—Room 23, 8; Room 12—Room 21, 11; Room 22—Room 23, 8. Grade 8—Room 25, 12—Room 15, 6; Room 13, 17—Room 24, 13.

Additions to Day's visual aid material in social studies, science, mathematics and other subjects include the use of new filmstrips, each centered about a certain theme or subject. These are projected on a screen and are used by teachers along with running commentaries. Two advantages of using filmstrips are that new pictures may be flashed on when needed and adjustment of vocabulary may be used to suit any particular group.

Many Day friends will be interested to know of our former staff members. Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hubbell have recently purchased a home in Minot, North Dakota; Miss Grenier has been leaving a quiet country life living with her sister in Leominster. Miss Manning has just returned from a trip to New York over the holiday season and is living in Newtonville. Mrs. Wallace Coates (Miss Johnstone, former assistant principal) lives in West Rindge, New Hampshire. She is a frequent visitor to Day.

News of the Day was gathered and reported by Charles Hooper, 9 F.A.

Waban

Mr. C. Adrian Sawyer Jr. of 57 Dorset road, president and treasurer of the Sawyer Construction Company of Boston was elected a member of the Board of Directors of the Suffolk First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Boston at the 60th annual Shareholders' meeting on January 15.

Auburndale Woman's Club

A lift to flagging spirits will be given members of the Auburndale Woman's Club on Tuesday, January 21 at 2:30, when Mr. Richard H. Potter, director of the Worcester Museum of Natural History, will talk on "Trees, soil and forestry conservation." His interesting lecture will be even more rewarding in his use of superb color films. Mr. Potter not only loves the forest himself, but translates interest into beneficial action by taking groups of children into the forests and there instructs them in soil and forestry conservation and in the natural sciences under the persuasion of nature's own setting.

Tea will be served after Mr. Potter's talk. He will be introduced by the day chairman, Mrs. Edmund I. Wilson, who will have as a guest Mrs. Ralph G. Swain, 3rd vice-president of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Newton people take pride in the fact that it was a local resident, the above Mrs. Edmund I. Wilson of Aspen avenue, Auburndale, who, as chairman of Memorials in the Massachusetts State Federation, conceived the idea of a forest as a living war memorial, which has been accepted enthusiastically by the Federation as a club project. For as little as 50c from every one of the 52,832 members of Massachusetts women's clubs, the total would be enough to buy this living tribute to those men and women who gave their lives in the past war, and to maintain it until such time as the stand of timber thereon could each year scientifically be cut and sold. From this source maintenance expenses would be available year after year.

It is further planned that parts of the forest would be set aside for public benefit and designated as a special tribute—a forest stream maybe, a bird sanctuary, or perhaps a Conservation Workshop where teachers would go in the summer to take courses in the natural sciences.

There is much to be done to educate the people in this country of the individual benefits ultimately derived from the proper conservation of our natural resources. It is hoped that this one project, in which all who wish may share, will be a beautiful tribute to the memory of those in this state who made the supreme sacrifice, and as a joy and benefit to the living.

Since 1866 the Quartermaster Corps has been assigned the responsibility of caring for proper burial of armed forces personnel who die during time of war.

Crittendon League Annual Meeting

"The Annual Meeting of the Newton Circle of the Florence Crittendon League will be held on Monday, January 20th at the home of Mrs. William F. Ray, 31 Farlow road, Newton.

Luncheon will be served at one o'clock by Mrs. Donald L. Gibbs and her committee which includes Mrs. Earl P. Stevenson, Mrs. Arnold C. Barker, Mrs. Robert H. Cain, Mrs. George Larsen and Mrs. Maurice W. Dennison.

Following luncheon, there will be a brief business meeting at which time the slate of officers for the ensuing year will be presented by Mrs. Payson T. Lowell, chairman of the nominating committee.

Immediately following the meeting Mr. David McCord, writer, who recently edited a book of humorous and light verse will address the meeting. Mr. McCord is at present teaching at Harvard.

Meeting of Lucy Jackson Chap., DAR

On the afternoon of Monday, January 13, the regular monthly meeting of the Lucy Jackson Chapter was held at the Chapter House in Newton Lower Falls.

The business meeting conducted by the Regent, Mrs. Frank S. Larkin, showed the Chapter to be in a flourishing condition to meet the New Year.

Two new members were accepted in to the Chapter, Mrs. George Miller as an active member and Mrs. D. A. Robinson as an associate member.

The speaker of the afternoon, Miss Emilie Everett, vice president and foreign policy chairman of the Massachusetts League of Women Voters, gave a very comprehensive talk on "The Role of the League of Women Voters in Foreign Policy."

She stressed the need of clear thinking and studied action on the great question confronting the world today. She urged letters and telegrams be sent to our Senators and Congressmen to acquaint them as to our ideas and wishes. She said the League stands squarely behind the measures as advocated by the United Nations Council. In the question period which followed she answered many inquiries concerning the Atom Bomb, its use and abuse, and clarified other points of interest.

A social hour followed when refreshments were served from a table uniquely decorated as a winter scene with a vase of spring flowers behind a snow man and the inscription "If Winter comes can Spring be far behind?" Mrs. Arthur S. Tucker and Mrs. William I. Vosburgh were the pourers.

Mrs. George W. Eylesmyer, Jr., and Mrs. Walter E. Holden were co-chairmen of the hostess committee who served.

The next gathering of the ladies at the Chapter House will be on January 30, when they will enjoy a colonial costume party. Mrs. Walter E. Holden will be chairman in charge and there will be various games in play and refreshments will be served.

The Quartermaster Corps is providing specially fitted orthopedic footwear for servicemen whose feet were disfigured while in service.

Too many veterans who are studying with the "help" of the G.I. Bill have yet to receive their subsistence checks for last September.

Shop Committee reported that her group had raised $2000. The present membership of the association exceeds one thousand.

search program and have provided the resources to combat epidemics wherever they have broken out. For instance Minnesota was especially hard hit in last year's epidemic and approximately one million dollars, plus equipment and trained personnel was sent to help local chapters meet this emergency.

It is most important that the 1947 campaign should both take care of current needs, continue the research programs and rebuild the epidemic fund which is a protection to every community. The National Foundation functions through its local chapters organized by county throughout the nation. (Newton is an important unit of the Middlesex County Chapter with headquarters at 4 Brattle street, Cambridge, Mass.) Each chapter keeps half of the March of Dimes money it raises to pay for transportation, hospitalization, treatment and medical care of any person in the county stricken with the disease. As the average family can not stand the cost of the necessary treatment, which is one of the most expensive known to medicine, it is most important to have a well organized helping hand to see that every victim is given the best possible chance of recovery. Of the money sent to the National Headquarters, half is used for research; grants and appropriation to hospitals and scholarships in physical therapy and half for emergency epidemic relief, and half for an epidemic fund to assist local chapters.

The number of old and new cases cared for last year by Middlesex County was 420. The Chapter spent in 1946, $53,000 on hospitals, clinics, nurses, doctors, transportation, braces, shoes and equipment, (nearly $12,000 of this was spent for clinic bills at the Children's Hospital in Boston). Because the needs in Middlesex County, including Newton, were large the National Foundation sent a grant of ten thousand dollars to supplement the resources of the local chapter. In the United States last year there were 24,000 new cases of polio. In the case of adults this should be a March of Dollars. The contributions of school children in dimes has always made up a large share of the funds collected.

Boxes for the collection of funds are being distributed through the stores, schools, and places of business in Newton. Last year, Newton contributed some nine thousand dollars to this most worthy cause. This year the need is greater than ever before. Each registered car owner will receive a coin card and there will be convenient opportunities to make contributions. Contributions should be mailed to William J. Payne, Treasurer, Newton National Bank, Newton 58, Mass.

spirit of co-operation was the keynote in the success of apprehending this law violator who had been successful in defrauding many storekeepers and merchants in the cashing of these forged checks for many months. "It is with pleasure, therefore, that we wish you to convey to your Police Department our appreciation for their aid in the above-mentioned matter."

Chief Nicholas Veducchio has also commended Patrolmen John J. Geegan and Cornelius J. Dwyer for the capture of Parkhurst, and other members of the department who took part in the search which ended in the capture of the suspect.

Officials of the eastern division of the National Ski Patrol system, foreseeing a growth of interest in skiing as a popular sport, are establishing in cooperation with the North Atlantic Area an expanded safety and first aid program similar to that in the field of swimming. In line with this effort, Mr. James A. Lowell of the National Ski Patrol will give a talk on Wednesday, January 29 at 7:45 p.m. on "Ski First Aid." Open to anyone who has passed the Advanced First Aid Course, the meeting will be held at the Chapter House at 21 Foster street, Newtonville.

member of the Board of Aldermen, and has been associated prominently with many civic activities including Community Chest and Red Cross campaigns. He lives at 28 Brookdale road, Newtonville, and is vice president of the American Locker Company, Inc., Boston.

Mr. Mattson, in a statement of acceptance, said, "USO must rely on the support of Newton and of Greater Boston if it is to continue its service for the 1,500,000 GI's still in service and the more than 200,000 recovering in the Army, Navy, and Veterans hospitals."

He further stated that of the nearly 10,000 Newton boys who served their country during World War II, there are over 1,000 still in service.

Sunday, January 19th, will be proclaimed as USO Sunday in Catholic and Protestant churches and in synagogues, with the clergy of all faiths stressing the need of continuing USO services through 1947.

Assisting Mr. Mattson in the Newton campaign will be Mrs. Hazel V. Wightman of Chestnut Hill and Charles E. Dearing II of Newton Centre, associate chairmen. Mrs. Wightman and Mr. Dearing will be closely associated with Mr. Mattson in the conduct of the campaign.

The campaign theme will be "The Wounded Still Fight." "The best testimonial for the need of USO Services is," according to Mr. Mattson, "from the returned servicemen themselves, more than 83 per cent of whom said in a recent poll that they believed USO should continue through 1947."

The executive committee of the USO Greater Boston Campaign includes three Newton citizens, E. M. Farnsworth of Chestnut Hill, Charles E. Spencer, Jr. of West Newton, and Clark E. Woodward of Newton Centre. Others on the executive committee are H. W. Dwight, Rudd, Archbishop Richard J. Cushing, D.D., J. E. Harrell, H. D. Hodgkinson, Milton Kahn, Thomas A. Pappas, and Robert T. P. Storer.

Newton headquarters of the USO Campaign have been opened at 259 Walnut street, Newtonville, telephone DECatur 1230. Servicemen and veterans, fathers and mothers of men now in the service, former USO personnel, and citizens at large are urged to get in touch with USO headquarters and volunteer for service.

A Message to Mr. and Mrs. Citizen From The Newton League of Women Voters

Streamlining Congress

If we really want to "set our house in order," we must urge and insist the present Congress put into action the bill for its own reorganization passed by its predecessor. If we really mean what we say, we can mold our unwieldy law-making body into an instrument of government more responsive to the needs of all of us. It is only necessary for us to give our Senators and Representatives a push along the paths they themselves have chosen.

In the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 the reduction of the number of standing committees from 33 to 15 in the Senate and from 48 to 19 in the House means that each Senator and Representative will serve on one or two committees of importance. The work of these committees has been outlined and defined to prevent overlapping. The channeling of work will mean more prompt and more efficient results for the country as a whole.

Of equal importance, for the first time in our history our legislators must look at income and outgo at the same time; the revenue and expenditure committees of both houses will meet together at the beginning of each session to consider the financial picture of the government.

In the reorganization act there is no provision for the enforcement of the budget, but the effect of studying income and expenditure at the same time should certainly bring beneficial results.

This same Legislative Reorganization Act raises the salary of Congressmen and should relieve some of the financial strain under which most of the Honorables have had to work. The Regulation of the Lobbying Act is part of the reorganization measure; there are numerous other benefits from this Act which this 80th Congress has only to utilize. Let Senator Saltonstall and Senator Lodge and your Representative know how you feel about the streamlining of Congress!

The Weeks Junior High School

The display cabinets which are on either side of the portrait of John W. Weeks, contain this week an interesting printing display which was set up by Mr. Downs, Bob Westermarck, and Stanley Burg. Since next week is Printing Education Week it is an appropriate one.

Friday's assembly sponsored a talk on posture by Norma Solimene after which Paula Clair took over and presented an odd, amusing set of gifts with peculiar spinal curves and slumps. The remaining time was taken up by a Royal Canadian Air Force movie entitled "The Training Table."

Miss Riggs, who is replacing Mrs. White, is the new girls' gym teacher and is very happy to be at Weeks. Before coming to Weeks she was one year at the Bouve Boston School of Physical Education as director of admissions and previously served two years in Europe with a club mobile unit of the Red Cross.

A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN BOSTON'S FUTURE

Boston Edison Company's New Generating Unit to be Largest in New England

Boston Edison Company is casting a vote of confidence in the future of Greater Boston by investing its capital in a giant 81,250-kilowatt turbo-generator which, according to present plans, will be ready for operation in 1949.

This new unit will incorporate every modern development designed to reduce the amount of fuel used per kilowatt-hour of electricity generated. The turbine will be the largest in New England. It will be served by the largest boiler, operated at higher pressures than any heretofore installed in New England. The inclusion of a re-heat cycle in this installation, together with other features, will make this unit even more efficient than Boston Edison's new Mystic Station, now rated as one of the most efficient in the country.

The improved fuel economy in the generation of electricity has been an important factor in enabling electric utilities up to now to maintain a general downward trend in prices charged their customers, in spite of the increased cost of almost all the elements entering into the production, transmission and distribution of electricity.

Fifth Major Increase in Ten Years

The new 81,250-kilowatt unit, together with a third 50,000-kilowatt turbo-generator which will go into operation in 1947 at Mystic Station, will increase present power-producing facilities by more than 25 per cent. It will be the fifth major increase in generating capacity in a ten-year period, and a 250,000-kilowatt increase in capacity—65 per cent—within the decade, 1940-1950.

Confidence in Future

Boston Edison thus renews its confidence in the future of the communities which the Company serves. For a century and a half Boston has been a leader in the industrial, commercial and cultural life of our Republic. It will continue to hold that leadership. And the electric service company on which the community relies will continue its policy of furnishing an adequate supply at the lowest possible cost.

Industrial Development

Metropolitan Boston and Massachusetts are in splendid condition to play their full part in the industrial development of the post-war era. The natural advantages of invigorating climate, superb harbors, and nearness to great markets will be supplemented by improved transportation, modern airports and, to a greater degree than ever before, the skill and ingenuity of the world's finest craftsmen. Boston Edison's New Business Department is prepared to furnish detailed information on business opportunities which await development in the cradle of American industry.

Mrs. Young Resigns As Chrm. Red Cross Volunteer Services

Announcement has come from Mr. Charles B. Floyd, Chairman of the Newton Chapter, American Red Cross, of the resignation of Mrs. William L. Young as Chairman of Volunteer Special Services. This key position in the work of the local Red Cross has been most capably handled by Mrs. Young for the past six years. Through the critical war period and during the months of transition to peacetime activities, her discriminating judgment, her cheerfulness and her tact have proved invaluable in the carrying out of the complex goals of the Newton Chapter. Born in Newton, Mrs. Young received her B.A. at Vassar and a B.S. at Simmons. In 1940 she became Chairman of Surgical Dressings, and began her position as head of Volunteer Special Services in 1941. This involved active supervision of Arts and Skills, Canteen, Gray Ladies, Motor Corps, Nurse's Aides, Production and Staff Assistance. In 1942 Mrs. Young took up her residence in Sharon, New Hampshire, and at the same time donated her spacious and beautiful home at 21 Foster street, Newtonville, to the Newton Red Cross Chapter to be used as a permanent headquarters. The house, with the large barn on the same property, has given in the carrying out of the com-

It is completely adequate and ranks as one of the finest Chapter houses in this area. With the lovely planting about the grounds and the Red Cross flag flying, it has a welcoming air for the many volunteer workers and citizens in trouble who seek its doors. At a meeting of the Volunteer Special Services Chairman on January 9 Mrs. Young told of her resignation, stating that her commuting is to end as she carries on increasing volunteer work in Sharon, New Hampshire. President of the Hospital Aide at the Peterborough Hospital, Peterborough, New Hampshire, she is also taking up work with the Sharon Arts Center. The gratitude and sincere good wishes of the Newton Chapter go with her.

Newton High School Notes

The Art Department has been burning with activity recently. On January 9, Mr. Ronald Murray of Houghton-Mifflin Publishing Company addressed the Art Appreciation and Industrial and Interior Design groups, giving a picture of the commercial art field in and around Boston. He offered sound advice to aspiring artists. Miss Rita Ellis, of the Art Department staff, has secured and hung a fascinating display of figure sketches and compositions in oil, water-color, and lithographer's crayon; these are the works of a professional artist, Katrine Amory Hooper, who has worked extensively from observation and participation in Jan Veen's classes of the dance. Other exhibits in the school feature junior and senior art students' chalk drawings by Thomas Schorer, water-colors and pastel sketches of Rockport by Elizabeth Gleim, and industrial designs ranging from clocks to fire extinguishers by Natalie Sharroff, Norman Patersen, Barbara Raitto, Jack Turner, Joan McMillin, Lois Dow, Helene Levensohn, and Ben Brown. Miss Helen Miles, Art Instructor, is appearing this month before two club groups, the Personality and Commercial Clubs. She will offer practical advice on dressing to make the most of one's coloring, build, and personality.

The following new Cub Scouts registered at the Scout Office during the past week: Monroe Gross, Pack 1; John Conway, Richard Murphy and Donald Nolan of Pack 21; James Mitchell, Peter Dauten, William Myrick and Richard Campana of Pack 22; Richard Wolk and Robert Colpitts of Pack 27.

They know about the 35% stronger cord body that gives better resistance to road shocks and bruising. It's no wonder the factory's outstanding production has been taxed keeping up with this extra demand. But this is one product you can take out of your dream book... it's here. GREER GARSON, noted movie star, makes appeal for contributions in March of Dimes campaign.

$24,000,000 National Goal in March of Dimes Campaign

Newton Committee Chairmen Named; Greer Garson Makes Public Appeal

The 1947 MARCH OF DIMES is a large and important undertaking in Newton and other communities of the nation. On a national scale there are 6,917 campaign chairmen and an estimated half-million workers, the goal of the campaign is a minimum of $24,000,000. The emergency of the polio epidemic of 1946 calls for a substantial increase in public giving to restore depleted reserves necessary for research and for the epidemic fund which is a protection to all communities.

In Newton the Campaign Chairman is Thomas V. Cleveland; the Treasurer is William J. Payne, Newton National Bank. The chairmen of the different village collections, especially through stores and business places are: George W. Bryson, Newton; Warren W. Oliver, Newtonville; Raymond P. Atwood, West Newton; John H. Gordon, Auburndale; Maxwell H. Robson, Newton Centre and Chestnut Hill; Herbert M. Cotton, Waban, Newton Highlands, Upper Falls; Con Lupo, Nonantum.

Mr. Ralph Sanguinetti of the Newton Savings Bank is Chairman of the Industrial Division. Assisting him are vitally interested persons whose homes have been visited by Infantile Paralysis: Mrs. Donald P. Frail of Newton Centre; Mrs. Floyd Sawyer of Newtonville; Mrs. Sidney Wish of Newton; Mrs. Alvah Ring of Waban; Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford of Newton.

Mrs. Leo F. Baldwin is Chairman of the collection in public schools. Mr. John Cahill is Chairman for parochial schools and banks. Miss Adelaide Ball is Chairman for clubs and organizations.

Police Benefit Assn. Elects Officers

At the annual meeting of the Newton Police Benefit Association, Lawrence J. Dungan was elected president. Lt. Philip Purcell was re-elected secretary and Sgt. Thomas F. Leehan re-elected treasurer. Charles J. Coady was re-elected to the Board of Directors. Other members elected to the Board were the retiring president, Joseph M. Greeley, Manley Kiley and Edward Hanlon.

Community Chorus Organization Appeals for Funds

The Community Chorus of the Newtons — which held its first free concert on the steps of the steps of the War Memorial Building, the week preceding Christmas, before an audience of some two thousand people — has just sent an appeal for funds to a large list of Newton men and women.

The purpose back of this appeal is to place the Chorus on a permanent basis and so assure its continuance as a civic enterprise which will bring many benefits to the entire city. Since many of our readers may not have received the letter, the Graphic takes pleasure in reproducing it on page 4.

The Community Chorus — comprising more than one hundred and fifty talented men and women singers — has been successfully launched; and so enthusiastically has it been welcomed that it is obviously destined to fill an important niche in the cultural life of the community and so to become a source of gratification to the many who

The Community Chorus

In keeping with its policy of furthering civic projects which will result in the ultimate benefit of all Newton residents, the Graphic is reproducing elsewhere in this issue, a letter recently sent to several thousand men and women by the Community Chorus of the Newtons.

This exceedingly worthy co-operative enterprise—which held its first concert the week before Christmas on the steps of the War Memorial Building—is so deserving of the moral and active support of everyone in the City that the Graphic earnestly calls the letter to the attention of its readers and bespeaks their assistance in placing the Chorus on a permanent financial basis.

Any contributions, however moderate, will be warmly received by the Governing Board of the Chorus—and checks may be made payable to Warren W. Oliver, Box 66, Newtonville 60. If further information is desired, we suggest that you contact Mr. Roy S. Edwards, President of the Roy S. Edwards Lumber Co., 29 Crafts street, Newtonville (LAS. 5500).

It is hoped that the response will be widespread—for the Chorus, with its undoubted cultural influence, will help maintain Newton's reputation as a city of high ideals and will reflect credit on all its citizens. The Graphic, always active in Newton's development, urges the fullest support of this unusually fine civic organization.

The Economists Are At It Again

This time they predict a depression but disagree as to its life-span and intensity. Twelve of the 13 business authorities recently polled by the United Press expect hard times to develop during 1947. Economist Roger W. Babson, who claims he called the turn on the 1929 market crash, anticipates a depression in 1949-51 as bad as that of 1932. Other forecasters expect a minor recession which would bring prices to the 1945 level, a decline in the national income to between $110 and 130 billions and unemployment of between 7 and 12 million. The big slump, they say is years off.

Dr. Paul Nystrom, President of the Limited Price Variety Stores Association, is greatly concerned over the growing inflation. He sees as the dominant factor in promoting additional inflation, the constant boosting of wages and the labor unions' program of a substantially increased minimum wage.

Nystrom believes the Nation will witness the strange spectacle of inflation coupled with unemployment. This, he says, will develop from the fact that with wage rates lifted too high for the smooth working of our economy, employers will not be able to maintain full employment. The unemployed, according to Nystrom, will be taken care of by a gigantic WPA and the lowered production per worker may mean that we shall pass from a surplus economy to a deficit economy.

Improvement Assn Newton Lower Falls

A meeting of the Newton Lower Falls Improvement Association was held on the evening of January 13th in the Parish House of St. Mary's Church. Among the subjects under discussion were the improvement of bus transportation to the Warren Junior High School, and the flooding of the tennis courts on Grove street for safe skating for the children.

The Civic Committee also has as a project the improvement of conditions at the polls for the convenience of the voters. Following the custom of furthering knowledge of the different services of the city, Deputy Fire Chief John Corcoran was the speaker for the evening.

PEOPLE ARE ASKING THESE QUESTIONS ABOUT ARMY ENLISTMENT

Q. What educational benefits do I get under the GI Bill of Rights?

A. If you serve honorably on active duty for a period of 90 days, one day of which is served between September 16, 1940, and the date of termination of the present war, or you are discharged because of an actual service-incurred injury or disability incurred within that first 90-day period of service, you are, upon discharge, entitled to one year of education in the college, trade or business school of your choice for which you can qualify. In addition, each month of active duty, including the first three, prior to the termination of the war, entitles you to another month of post-service education, up to 48 months.

Your tuition, laboratory fees, etc., up to $500 per ordinary school year will be paid by the government. Also, you will receive $65 a month living allowance; $90 a month if you have dependents.

Q. What about family allowances?

A. For men enlisting or reenlisting now, family allowances will continue until six months after the war is officially ended.

Q. What are my chances of going overseas?

A. If you enlist for 3 years, you may select to serve in any overseas theater which has openings, especially Japan or Korea.

Q. Can I still choose the branch of service I want to serve in?

A. Yes. You can pick any branch which has quotas to be filled, if you enlist for 3 years.

Q. Is there any way I can reenlist in my old grade?

A. Yes, you can, if you reenlist for a 3-year term within 20 days after your honorable discharge.

Q. Is there any other way I can reenlist in grade?

A. Yes, if you held one of certain military occupational specialties, and were discharged on or after May 12, 1945, you can reenlist in a grade depending on the length of time you held the desired M. O. S.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

The Georgia Mess

For the benefit of those who do not read the Boston Herald, let me quote two paragraphs from Cunningham's column on Jan. 21, written from Atlanta, Ga. — "We are only fighting for one thing — the right of white people of this state to form themselves into a political party and to decide who shall be members of that party. We grant to the colored people that same right and to any other people that same right." This statement was made by one of the new Governor Talmadge's chief lieutenants, former Speaker of the House, Roy V. Harris of Augusta. Cunningham goes on to say, — "That last paragraph seems to sum up what most of this ruckus is really at base bottom about."

In other words, BOTH Talmadge and "Acting Governor" M. E. Thompson are staunch advocates of the so-called white primary and complete segregation of the whites from the blacks. That means, of course, that the average Northerner would cry, "A plague on both your Houses!" As Walter Winchell said over the radio last Sunday evening, it is time for the President of the United States to step in and take decisive action, inasmuch as he is sworn to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States. The political leaders of Georgia appear to be defying that same Constitution, which, in theory at least, gives the colored citizen precisely the same rights and privileges as the white citizen.

Here again, as your columnist stated in his reference to the Bilbo case recently, it behooves this country to straighten out its own internal affairs before we get too tough and critical with Moscow. What is now happening in Georgia could conceivably happen in some other state. Then what? Would the federal government continue to stall along and do nothing on the plea that the problem was strictly a state affair and should be settled on that basis? In my opinion, such a course, if pursued too long, would make our federal government a target for ridicule everywhere throughout the world and not just in our own country. Let us hope that some of our worthy law-makers in Washington will bring pressure to bear on the White House to do something before it is too late. Another possibility, of course, is intervention by the Supreme Court of the United States. However, these learned gentlemen seem to be having difficulty in making a prompt decision in the case of John L. Lewis, the gent who hides behind his eye-brows while defying the President of the United States and all the rest of us 140,000,000 citizens.

The Governor's Council

That unpredictable Republican, Senate President Donald W. Nicholson of Wareham on the Cape, made one of his frequent unconventional moves a short time ago when he suggested the abolition of the Governor's Council. According to the news item which came to my attention, one of the State Senator's chief worries appeared to be that a Governor, every little while, will promise a friend of his that he will give him a juicy job on the state payroll and will then proceed to ask the members of the Governor's Council, privately of course, to refuse to confirm the appointment. It would, quite naturally, be somewhat difficult to either prove or disprove Senator Nicholson's charges. Furthermore, I am not at all sure that this charge, even if sustained, would be sufficient cause for abolishing the Council. Some political observers are interested in finding out just what is back of the Senator's idea.

One thing more. Senator Nicholson's Councilor is the young world war two veteran, John S. Ames of Easton, who was elected for the first time last fall. Prior to that, the First District Councilor was Joseph P. Clark, Jr. of Fall River, a Democrat. This man followed our present Attorney General Clarence A. Barnes of Mansfield, who won a seat on the Council by defeating said Clark. Going back still farther, this district was represented by a weak Republican who kow-towed to the then Governor, James M. Curley, and was rewarded by a very juicy appointment.

NEWTON IN THE PAST

From the Files of The Newton Graphic

55 Years Ago

January 29, 1892:

Hurricane corner, as many call the Elliot block, corner of Elmwood and Center streets, has well deserved its name this week.

Rumors of happenings in the near future: bowling alley on Beacon in Waban, a new residence on Chestnut street, a colonial party, a leap year party, a minstrel show and amateur theatricals.

Mr. Everett L. Smith, the well known Boston horseman, has had a sleigh made on his own plans that beats the record for a light weight cutter. Its total weight, shafts and all, is 41 pounds. Trotting sulky sleighs have been made that weigh about 10 pounds less, but this is the lightest full-fledged sleigh on record. Mr. Smith will use the rig on a trip through New Hampshire.

50 Years Ago

January 29, 1897:

An open handicap bowling tournament for the 15 highest strings is to be played on Bray's alleys beginning next week. The list of entries includes some of the best local rollers, and the matches promise to be some of the best that have been played on the alleys. The first prize is a ball and bag, and the second an umbrella.

Negotiations are nearly complete between the executive committee of the Newton Club, and the Newton Association over a union of the two organizations. This will create a new feature for the Newton Club, an active athletic department, whose baseball, football, and tennis tournaments ought to prove important attractions to members and their

I cite these statistics because I am wondering if they have any bearing on the Senator's recent attack on the Governor's Council.

Mayorality Situation

Just a few comments on what now appears to be a wide-open contest for the coveted position of Mayor of Newton less than a year from now. Of the twelve men whose initials I listed in the political guessing contest a few weeks ago, one man has already announced himself. That man is one of Mayor Goddard's two opponents in the last election, former Assistant District Attorney Hugh S. Boyd of Newton. The grape-vine tells me that at least one of the other eleven men mentioned will announce his candidacy in the near future. Many of the others will doubtless be smoked out before many weeks have elapsed. It is the early bird which catches the worm.

It may interest my readers to learn that several people have called me up and said that the next mayor would not necessarily be selected from the twelve prominent citizens whom I listed. Well, I do not recall that I ever stated that the next mayor would be one of these distinguished gentlemen. Your columnist is well aware of the fact that our Mayor-to-be may be a dark-horse. Who knows?

friends. It is probable that a gymnasium will be erected in the near future on the athletic grounds on Cedar street.

Carmenita, a beautiful angora cat, property of Miss Blanche Pierce of Walnut street, took the first prize at the cat show held in Boston recently.

25 YEARS AGO

January 27, 1922:

The class of 1923 won the Newton High School Inter-Class meet in the school gymnasium last Friday afternoon nosing out the class of 1922, 34 to 33. The class of 1924 scored 18 points and 1925 was fourth with 9 points. The sub-seniors of the class of 1923 had 5 points. This was the first track meet of the season for Newton and it gave Coach Dickinson a good chance to size up his material. Clarence McDavitt, captain of the team, took first place in the senior 30-yard dash and Stafford, captain of this year's champion football team, captured first honors in the senior 1000.

The local "Y" swimming team journeyed to Worcester last Saturday night and won the Massachusetts and Rhode Island Y. M. C. A. aquatic championship, splashing through for 32 points, winning the team trophy and 11 individual medals, eight of which were first place prizes. Not only did the team win the meet and most of the prizes, but two of the swimmers, Brown and Millard, made two national Y. M. C. A. records in the 50-yard and the 100-yard dash, respectively.

Newton Lions Club

At a record attendance meeting of the Lions Club, J. Frank Dunleavy, President, Mrs. Frank J. Naumann of Dobbs Ferry, N. Y. (Marion Tapper) gave an illustrated lecture in color film of their 14,000 mile trip across the U. S. to Northwest country, Victoria Island; skiing on the Cascade Mountains, Yellowstone Park, Mt. Ranier, Yosemite Park, Grand Canyon and Mexico. Members were impressed with the unusual color effects and the subjects selected; and the speaker was presented with a bronze Lion by President Dunleavy.

This was followed by a movie of "Operation Crossroads" — the Atom Bomb test at Bikini. Visitors were George H. Doggett, Secretary of the Boston Host Lions Club; Dr. Raymond W. Black, dentist, of Newton Center and John C. Thompson of Oak Hill. The latter were proposed for membership by members Jack Tapper and George Pascoe.

Mr. Doggett spoke briefly, in which he stressed that he had never realized the scope of the Lions Club until his recent visit at the Philadelphia Convention where races of many tongues met.

A Message to Mr. and Mrs. Citizen

From

The Newton League of Women Voters

This is a letter which might be written by any Mother to any newly married Daughter, especially if the Mother were a member of the League of Women Voters. Dear Julie,—

You aren't the only ones. There are approximately two and a half million families needing homes. Even with well over a million families still living doubled up the estimated need for homes by the end of this year is close to four million.

We knew it would be hard for you to start your married life in Father and Mother Miller's house, but you can do it. Turn your disadvantages into advantages. You are a guest in Mother Miller's home—a helpful and informal guest but a guest nevertheless. Utilize the extra time which you have at your disposal. You and Bob have a definite political potential. Even later on when you are doing your own housework you can realize the privileges and responsibilities of new voting citizens by being a participant in government instead of a grousing onlooker.

My first suggestion is for you to read up on the General Housing Bill (S.1592) which was passed in the Senate but not by the House of last Congress. It is called the W. E. T. bill because it was introduced by a bi-partisan coalition of senators; Senator Wagner, Democrat of New York, Senator Ellender, Democrat of Florida, and Senator Taft, Republican of Ohio. This is an example of long range planning which was the result of study by senators of the whole problem of postwar housing. The bill aims toward "a decent home and a suitable living environment for every American family." Its purposes are:

- 1) The establishment of a single federal agency in the field of housing.
- 2) Aid to localities in slum clearance and urban redevelopment.
- 3) Housing for low-income groups.
- 4) Housing for middle-income groups.
- 5) Rural housing.
- 6) Research and market analysis.

More about this later. Ask Father Miller what he thinks about this.

Love,
Mother.

these chairmen was held at the Newton campaign headquarters on Tuesday evening, when plans for the coming campaign were discussed. The area chairmen are now completing their organizations for the solicitation which will start in Newton January 31st.

The first subscription which came in to Newton headquarters, entirely unsolicited, was for $500 and was given by a father of a man who served in the armed forces, in appreciation of what the USO had done for his boy during the war years. Fathers and mothers of boys now in service, veterans of the war, members of the American Legion and other organizations, are volunteering for service. Others wishing to volunteer in the names of 1,000 Newton men now in the service and the hundreds in hospitals are urged to call USO headquarters at 259 Walnut street, DFCatur 1230, and volunteer to help.

Senator Leverett Saltonstall, our esteemed fellow citizen in Newton, in publicly endorsing this campaign, has made this statement:

"The final campaign for support of the USO is now in progress. I have had the privilege of seeing USO clubs in operation in Germany and in the far Pacific. I know how much value they are to our boys. The fighting part of the war is over but many of our sons are still in places far from home. Many thousands of them are still in hospitals. They need our help. We can give it to them through the USO. I hope we in Massachusetts do our part."

A Project Of Importance To All Our 13 Villages:

If you heard that first free concert of the new Community Chorus... held at the War Memorial Building, just before Christmas... you must have felt that this splendid organization of 150 inspired singers is a credit to all of us who live here and will bring Newton added fame as a city of high ideals.

Actually, Newton is the first city in the State to attempt such an all-neighborhood enterprise... again demonstrating its leadership in co-operative community undertakings.

And because the Chorus, itself, is so deserving of the moral and active support of every resident, we're asking you and others who enjoy the finer things of community life to help place it on a permanent financial footing.

Won't you join us as a sponsoring member... and identify yourself with the other prominent, public spirited men and women who first visualized the importance of this all-village endeavor and its valuable cultural influence?

We're not asking you to contribute any specified amount. Whatever you'd be willing to subscribe... $1, $2, $5, $10, or more if you wish... will be gratefully received. And for your check... which may be made payable to Warren W. Oliver, Treasurer... we're enclosing a convenient postage-paid envelope.

You may be sure we'll be delighted to have you with us... as another good neighbor interested in a praiseworthy activity.

And we believe that you, in turn, will derive much satisfaction from sharing in the progress of this admirable Chorus of mixed voices which made such a deep impression on the many enthusiastic listeners who attended its first concert.

Sincerely yours, planting of only selected portions of the total length of six miles, but the program allows for future extension. The planting scheme has been prepared and will be supervised by Bradford Williams, Landscape Architect.

The planting "theme" will be native hemlock and mountain laurel employed consistently throughout the project to unify the several areas. These two species, used generously, will give a year-round effect of greenery; but the mountain laurel, like that on the Merritt Parkway in Connecticut, will be outstanding for its masses of bloom in June.

This evergreen background will be brightened throughout the planting by the use of small flowering trees and shrubs for spring and summer effect, and of plants with brilliant autumn foliage and colorful winter fruits or bark for fall or winter enjoyment. Each separate area will take on its own individual character through the kind of flowering plants selected for it. Moreover, the kind of plants used will be appropriate to the neighborhood where they are to grow; for example, the flowering trees and shrubs near the Boston line will include Flowering Crabapples and named varieties of Lilac, while the material chosen for use near the Weston line will include such native plants as Flowering Dogwood and Highbush Blueberry.

From the beginning, the project has had the benefit of the advice of the City Forester, George Rogers, who has promised full cooperation by his department in annual maintenance of the plantings.

BOSTON TO BE HOST TO FIRST ANTIQUE AUTO SHOW

Granddad's car is coming back to Boston after an absence of more than 30 years. In fact many of the cars which Granddad owned back at the turn of the century will be on exhibition at New England's first antique auto show to be held Jan. 24 through 28 at Horticultural Hall.

The show, sponsored by the Veteran Motor Car Club of America, will see gathered together under one roof many famous and unusual antique cars all still in good operating condition. Club members have spent many months preparing the machines for the show and they are polished and ready for display.

Remember the model T Ford, the Pierce Arrow and the Maxwell runabout which Granddad drove at the terrific rate of 25 miles an hour while the neighbors looked on enviously? Well, they'll all be at the show along with dozens of other old cars dating back as far as 1896.

There will be machines powered by gasoline, steam, electricity, and autos from as far away as France, England and Germany. Most of them are about 30 years old, although several are 40 to 50 years old.

A car with a unique background which you can see at the show is the 1909 Unic Taxi-cab, a French car owned by George Felton of Boston. This strange-looking vehicle, standing over 7½ feet tall, was built in Puteaux, France, just outside Paris, by the George Richard Co. which is still in business.

One of the first machines of its type built by the concern, the Unic was used in 1914 during the famous taxi-cab march to the Battle of the Marne. At the time French transportation was severely crippled and replacements at the front were desperately needed.

The city's taxi-cab drivers banded together and volunteered to help carry soldiers to the front. This Unic that may be seen at the show made dozens of trips filled with soldiers from Paris to the Marne and back again.

In later years it was purchased by a Londoner and in 1931 was secured by Mr. Felton and shipped to this country. At that time it had traveled more than 310,000 miles.

The car has been rebuilt five different times and now it is in perfect operating condition. Felton says it will run 37 miles on a single gallon of gasoline and that its top speed is about 32 miles per hour. He has been on several long trips with it and never has had any major trouble during the past few years.

One of the oldest cars at the show is a 1904 touring car owned by E. Bonnet Beede of South Lincoln, Mass. Unused since 1911, the car recently was completely rebuilt. Beede stripped the machine down to the frame and then reassembled it piece by piece checking each part as he progressed.

Those parts which he was unable to obtain from used car dealers he built himself. For instance, the worn spindles in the front wheels were replaced by spindles which Beede built in his workshop. Working much of the time in a shed at night, Beede has spent more than five months overhauling the ancient vehicle.

The show will run for five days from Jan. 24 through Jan. 28. It will be open daily from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. and on Sunday from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Moles are the most important wild fur-bearing animals of the British Isles, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica. The little burrowing animals are raised on "mole farms" in Britain, and mole-raising is a highly lucrative occupation.

Collections will be made on Friday, January 24, 1947.

The poster of this year's campaign and the collection box, with a picture of Nancy Drury of Louisville, Ky., who was stricken in 1944 and is now completely healthy and normal, should be familiar sights in the Newtons as three hundred posters and nine hundred boxes have been distributed and are in use. In addition letters were sent to all registered automobile owners in the Newtons.

From January 24 to 30, the screen star, Greer Garson will make a public appeal for the campaign in the motion picture "A Step Forward," which will be shown in local theatres as a special feature. Collections for the March of Dimes will be taken in the lobbies of these theatres, by special arrangement.

In regard to Newton it is important to know that five thousand dollars was expended from last year's collection to aid local victims of the disease and that part of the funds collected in Newton last year helped in the research program and the national fight against the disease.

The dimes and dollars contributed to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis are used for these six purposes:

They pay for the full cost of care, regardless of time, for any infantile paralysis victim who may require it, irrespective of age, race, creed or color.

They buy expensive equipment, such as iron lungs, Hubbard tanks, hot pack machines and furnish wool for packs.

They supply front-line shock troops, such as doctors, physical therapists, epidemiologists, nurses, etc. in epidemic-stricken areas to fight the disease. They remain on the scene for the duration of the epidemic.

They finance research in hundreds of laboratories and medical schools into the cause and treatment of infantile paralysis. This takes millions of dollars annually.

They pay for a ceaseless educational campaign to inform the public how it may take precautions against polio and what to do if it strikes.

They guarantee every American the best in care and treatment if and when polio strikes.

Newton Rotary Club

Introduced to the members of the Newton Rotary Club by Eugene Campbell, Jack Sharkey, former heavy weight boxing champion, who is a resident of Newton, gave a most interesting and amusing account of his boxing career at the meeting held at the Brae Burn Country Club on Monday.

The program opened with solos by three Lasell Junior College girls, Lee Doucette, Marilyn Altrock and Gretchen Yost from Panama, who were received with great applause. They were accompanied at the piano by Louis Haffermehl.

As a preface to his remarks Mr. Sharkey said: "Only two know what I am going to talk about—just God and myself, and even I am not too sure." Jack came from Binghamton, New York, left school at 13, and went to work. Shortly after, he came to Boston and walked into Scollay Square, as this seemed to be the place young fellows usually went. For his first fight in Scollay Square he was paid $100, and was then told to go out and get a name he could use in boxing. After walking around the streets for a while, he decided on the name "Sharkey."

His talk was interspersed with many amusing incidents. After the usual elimination bouts, he and Schmelling boxed for the championship.

His opinion is that Joe Louis will not fight again, but feels that Louis will put on exhibition bouts and make as much money with less effort.

A short question period followed during which some of his overseas experiences were discussed.

The area of Japan proper, including the islands of Honshu, Shikoku, Kyushu and Hokkaido, is less than the state of California, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica. The islands cover 147,707 square miles.

Auburndale Woman's Club

Creating an interest in conservation is as important as setting aside land and the preservation of trees, Mr. Richard H. Potter, Director of the Worcester Museum of Natural History, declared in a talk before the Auburndale Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon. The Nation's natural resources belong to all the people, not to selfish groups, Mr. Potter maintained. To illustrate portions of his talk, colored pictures of forest areas in the United States were shown, the dominant theme being to illustrate the public apathy and public indifference toward the ruthless destruction of natural forest lands for gain and the resulting poverty and disease. Conservation must be taught to youth, Mr. Potter declared. "Teach the child to step out into the wilderness and make him conscious of beauty. He will want to keep that beauty all his life." He wholeheartedly commended the project of a Memorial Forest of which Mrs. Edmund I. Wilson, chairman of the day, was the author.

Mrs. Wilson introduced the speaker and took that opportunity to tell the members of the Club about the project of buying approximately 1,000 acres of forest land as a living war memorial. It would be a constant tribute to the men and women of the State who made the supreme sacrifice during the Second World War. A section of the forest could be planned as a camping site for youth, a workshop for teachers and several other possibilities, she continued. Mrs. Wilson went on to state that the project was receiving wholehearted support by women's clubs and that if each member gave as little as 50c it would be enough to buy the forest.

Mrs. Wilson also introduced her guest of the day, Mrs. Ralph G. Swain, Third Vice President of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs who brought an inspiring message to club members. Two hostesses were Mrs. Walter Jehu and Mrs. Wendell B. Drury. Pourers were Mrs. Howard B. Wyck and Mrs. Willard G. Hatch. Mrs. Erick J. Kernath, President, presided at the business meeting which preceded the talk. Three new members were introduced: Mrs. Stephen G. Simpson, Mrs. John W. Kingston, Mrs. Walter Engel.

Mrs. Dexter Lovell, Membership chairman, announced a tea for new members on Friday, February 14. Mrs. William W. Edson told of a Scholarship Fund Bridge chain to be started at the home of Mrs. Eldin Lynn on Tuesday, January 28.

Newton Girl Scouts

Girl Scout Adults of Newton Local Council gathered at the Newton Center Women's Club Tuesday evening for their Annual Meeting. Presiding was Mrs. Henry Whitmore, Jr., commissioner. The evening opened with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, America, and the invocation by the Rev. W. Henry Shillington, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Newton, Newton Upper Falls.

Following dinner, announcement was made of a Girl Scout movie to be held on Feb. 28th at the West Newton and Newton theaters to sponsor funds for capital expense at Camp Mary Day. Mrs. Ralph E. Keyes told of plans for the 35th Girl Scout Anniversary Dinner to be held at the Copley Plaza, March 21st.

Mrs. Whitmore and Miss Elizabeth Richardson, executive director, gave brief annual reports evaluating the work of the past year and paying tribute to the Volunteers and the staff who together have shared the responsibility for good program, financial support, camping and international activities of the Newton Girl Scouts.

New officers of the Local Council were elected for the coming year as follows:

Officers of the Corporation: Honorary Commissioner, Mrs. Frank A. Day; Commissioner, Mrs. Henry Whitmore Jr.; 1st Deputy Commissioner, Mrs. Edwin Roberts; 2nd Deputy Commissioner, Mrs. Charles F. Weden; Secretary, Mrs. William Wayman; Treasurer, Mrs. William R. Greve; Assistant Treasurer, Mrs. Donald L. Gibbs.

Special Representatives: Community Chest, Mrs. Frederick H. Parsons; Juliette Low, Mrs. Joseph Schaffer; Leaders Association, Mrs. John S. White.

The guest speaker of the evening was Mr. Ralph Hubert, former Sergeant of the 10th Mt. Division Ski Troopers. His topic on "Camping and the Out-of-Doors" was particularly apt for a Girl Scout audience who followed his remarks about his experiences during the war with concentrated attention. He emphasized the necessity for ingenuity and resourcefulness in meeting the exigencies of outdoor living: sharp tools, nesting kettles, warm blankets to dry wet shoes, proper foot gear and extra socks, birch bark and waxed matches for fire-building, as applicable to Girl Scout Camping. Of unusual interest were his showing and explanation of the use made of pitons, snap links, rope for tension climbing and cramp-ons, all of which must be carried in a well equipped pack. And finally of most timely interest were Mr. Hubert's emphasis of companionship — the learning how to live to gether with other folk on the trail; how the "Practical Applications of Democracy" by Huzar might furnish challenging reading in a snow cave in bad weather, and how the compass used before one is lost can help give the out-of-doors camper bearings on life in general.

The presentation of five, ten, fifteen, and twenty year service awards by Mrs. George H. Larsen and Mrs. William V. Fawcett were made to:

Five-Year Service Awards: Troop Committee Members: Mrs. Lowell Bruce, Leader; Mrs. Raymond Capobianco, Council Member, Village Chairman; Mrs. Fred Hardy; Mrs. Herbert Kestle, Leader, Village Chairman; Miss Alice Mahoney, Leader; Mrs. Nora Mahoney; Mrs. M. C., all expenses paid, and will compete for $11,000 in Westinghouse science scholarships.

Finalists were chosen from 3,197 applicants in all sections of the country on the basis of their showing in a stiff science aptitude test, teachers' estimates of personal abilities and interests, scholastic records, and 1,000-word essays on their own scientific projects.

Top awards, one to a boy and one to a girl, will be four-year scholarships of $2,400 each. In addition there will be eight four-year scholarships of $400 each, and the remaining $3,000 will be awarded at the discretion of the judges.

One of the judges of the research is Dr. Harlow Shapley, director of the Harvard Observatory.

Karplus will be interviewed on radio stations WBZ and WBEA this Saturday (Jan. 26) at 9:45 A.M. by "Chick" Morris, WBZ director of special events.

The West Newton resident hopes to unravel one of Nature's unsolved mysteries — birds' uncanny orientation ability — by the use of radar and infrared rays.

His bird surveys have taken him on weekly trips to Cape Ann, and then following specific birds to Mt. Desert Island, Maine, and Bonaventure Island, Canada. He is particularly interested in a species of diving birds, known as Alcids.

First in Class

Karplus regularly submits analyses of his bird surveys for publication in "Records of New England Birds," and his reports on migratory waterfowl, prepared for the Massachusetts Department of Conservation, are forwarded to the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

One of the organizers of the Old Colony Bird Club, he is active in the Audubon Society, the Brookline Bird Club, and is a member of the American Ornithologists Union.

There's EXTRA SAFETY in the Tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

While many postwar products are still in the dream stage, one is not . . . the new postwar B.F. Goodrich Silvertown that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES.

It's been produced . . . and what is more . . . in the past twelve months it's been delivered to car owners in greater quantities than any tire in B.F. Goodrich history.

Of course, many car owners have heard about the thousands of extra miles of service from the broader, flatter tread that covers more road area and gives greater protection against skidding. They know about the 35% stronger cord body that gives better resistance to road shocks and bruising. It's no wonder the factory's outstanding production has been taxed keeping up with this extra demand.

But this is one product you can take out of your dream book . . . it's here. If you'll be needing new tires soon . . . check with us today for the tire that's worth much more but costs no more — the B.F. Goodrich Silvertown that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES.

Newton U.S.O. Campaign Begins Jan. 31, Closes Feb. 17

Services to Be Continued Through 1947; Greater Boston Goal $425,000

The USO Campaign in Newton will start January 31 and run through February 17 and William E. Mattson, Newton Chairman, urges all citizens of Newton to support this campaign by making generous subscriptions.

"President Truman speaking for the nation, General Eisenhower for the Army, Admiral Nimitz for the Navy, and General Bradley for the Veterans have asked the USO to continue its services one more year," states Mr. Mattson in a letter which he is sending to a large group of citizens this week. "USO services will be continued in the Greater Boston area in 1947," Mr. Mattson further states, "and 1000 Newton boys still in the armed forces and many wounded in hospitals will continue to benefit."

In a proclamation printed on this page, Honorable Paul M. Goddard, Mayor of the City of Newton, adds his endorsement to that of Senator Leverett Saltonstall released last week. The American Legion Post 48 has endorsed the campaign, and many veterans have volunteered their services to assist in canvassing for funds.

The national quota for the USO for 1947 is $19,000,000 and Greater Boston's share of this goal is $425,000. "It is unthinkable," states Mr. Mattson, "that Newton will fail in doing its part to make this campaign a success."

A PROCLAMATION

By His Honor
PAUL M. GODDARD
Mayor

The Greater Boston U.S.O. campaign for $425,000 has already started. Newton is requested to do its share, and our campaign will be conducted between January 31 and February 17.

In many respects, the work conducted by the United Service Organizations is more vital and more necessary than it was when we were actively engaged in the war. The wounded veterans certainly need all the assistance we can give, and the men now in service must be provided with activities to maintain the morale so necessary in all of our armed forces.

The leaders of the Army and Navy are asking us to help in continuing the fine work being done in the more than 100 veterans' hospitals and by the many hundreds of U.S.O. clubs and units in the United States and overseas. It is an opportunity to help our own boys from Newton, approximately 1000 of whom are still in the service and many of them in hospitals.

I respectfully ask for a generous response from our citizens.

PAUL M. GODDARD,
Mayor.

During her two years as Nutritionist with the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, she participated in the State's Well Child Conferences, and served as Nutrition Consultant for Plymouth County.

Miss Cantoni will begin her work in January, 1947, at the Nutrition Center, a community agency supported by the Newton Community Chest, Newton Health Department, and Newton Red Cross.

NEWTON YOUTH FINALIST IN SCIENCE TALENT SEARCH

Martin Karplus, 16-year-old West Newton ornithologist, is the first Massachusetts finalist in six years of Science Talent Search by Westinghouse Educational Foundation. A Newton High School senior, Karplus is shown (above) as he appeared on a special WBZ and WBZA radio interview with "Chick" Morris, WBZ director of special events. (WBZ Photo)

In the bulletin "Common Interest," issued by the Newton Taxpayers' Association it is stated that the mayor has indicated that the tax rate this year will be appreciably higher than in 1946.

There are several important factors, according to the bulletin which make up the Tax Rate which will not be known until late spring, such as the amount of the State Income Tax distribution and the amount of City "available funds" which the Board of Aldermen may vote to use for current expenses.

The following factors are listed as reasons why the tax rate may be increased this year:

On January 2, 1947, the Board of Aldermen of the City of Newton, upon recommendation of the Mayor, appropriated $735,000 for a City employee bonus. Of this amount, $35,000 will be for the Water Department.

Hospital Aid Assn. Sponsors Concert by Three Glee Clubs

An unusual musical event is scheduled for March 18, at 8:15 p.m., when a joint concert will be held in the Newton High School Auditorium by the Highland Glee Club, the Wollaston Glee Club and the Amphion Club of Melrose, under the direction of Mr. D. Ralph MacLean. Mr. James Gray will be the accompanist for the combined clubs, which will number close to 200 voices.

The assisting artist will be Miss Alice Farnsworth, whose beautiful soprano voice has won her widespread acclaim; and Mr. Andrew Heath will serve as her special accompanist. The concert is being held in the interests of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital Aid Association and the proceeds will be used by the association to supplement the needs of the hospital and the School of Nursing. In past years, the association has held a large annual bridge party and fashion show, usually in May, to further its fine work. This year, however, the joint concert will take its place. Besides supplying funds for the purchase of much valuable equipment for the hospital, the association also provides a yearly nurse's fellowship of $375, daily newspapers for all wards and 16 weeks of free patient care annually. In addition, the organization has pledged $25,000 towards the hospital building fund.

Theatre Collections Swell March of Dimes Fund

Mr. Thomas V. Cleveland, Newton Chairman of the "March of Dimes," the annual collection for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, which will end on January 30, reports that collections which have been taken in the local theatres during the past week are proving very helpful. A full and complete report on the returns of the collections will be available next week. Because the needs are great it is hoped that the returns this year will exceed those of 1946.

Those who have been taking collections at the theatres have been parents of Newton children afflicted with polio. These workers have been, Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford of Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Wish of Newton, Mrs. Alvah Ring of Waban, Mrs. Leo Baldwin of Waban, Mrs. Floyd B. A Message to Mr. and Mrs. Citizen

The Newton League of Women Voters

Julie writes back
(cont. from last week)

Dear Mother,

Well, I asked Father Miller! He feels that the Government is trying to run everything for us; he practically accused Bob and me of wanting the Government to hand us a house! The whole conversation was perplexing and upsetting, and it ended on a note of bewilderment for Bob and me. Can you console us any?

Love,

Julie.

Julie dear,

Father Miller is a sincere, honest, intelligent person; I don't have to imagine his state of mind; I have seen it often among our friends.

The purpose of the Wagner-Elender-Taft bill is not to deprive private enterprise of its legitimate operations. It is to give impetus to private enterprise in its efforts to solve a problem far too vast for it alone. Somehow we Americans need to stop the merry-go-round we are on. We have the accumulated needs of the past two decades; in addition to the emergency need we have 10½ million units of substandard housing. The 8 million families who live in filth and drabness do not do so from choice. In the development of all cities who will find that the price of slum areas has been kept too high for private builders to utilize the areas; of necessity they have moved out to less expensive land. The cost of acquiring and preparing slum areas for redevelopment has been too great for private enterprise; this bill proposes to make funds available to private builders which have been available in the past only to public housing. Also there is provision for local communities to conduct surveys and make community plans; the WET bill is to finance up to 50% of their cost.

The hope is to stimulate the building of a million and a quarter houses per year and only 125,000 units would be public housing and that for the very lowest income groups. Private builders have often agreed that they can't build for the income group which public housing serves. So the most vehement arguments against the bill have actually, to my mind, been based on erroneous information. There are other arguments: namely financing which I'll try to discuss next time I write. Good luck, Love,

Mother.

Letter to the Editor

To The Newton Graphic:
When is this fair city of Newton going to do something about housing its veterans? They are receiving a poor welcome home. Other towns and cities have found ways and means to ease the situation with bank aid and the enthusiasm of patriotic citizens. But not Newton! It is evident Newton does not wish its young men to settle here. Many of them are unable to pay large rents and the type of dwelling which they require would perhaps be too plebeian for Newton. The city fathers won't even temporarily alter the zoning laws so that many large unoccupied houses could be put into service. Landlords are holding vacant apartments for speculative purposes. The Garden Clubs are going to enhance the value of property along Commonwealth ave. by planting some trees—as a living memorial. It's too bad the veterans and their families can't roost in them.

H.G.S.

Newtonville Jr. Woman's Club

The Newtonville Junior Woman's Club held its January meeting Tuesday evening, Jan. 21 at the home of Mrs. Norman E. Moore, 302 Highland avenue, West Newton.

A skating party has been planned for Feb. 13, at the Boston Skating Club. All members and friends are cordially invited.

Miss Jeanette Norris introduced Mrs. Ralph St. Swain, Third Regional Federation and Editor of the magazine, "Federation Topics."

Mrs. Swain gave a most interesting talk on her duties as Editor of "Federation Topics."

After Mrs. Swain's talk a Dutch Auction was held which was fun for all.

Refreshments were served by The Hostess.

Politics With Color

by P. W. C.

(The opinions expressed in this column are the writer's own, and do not necessarily reflect the views or policy of this newspaper.—Editor's Note.)

1948 Presidential Nominees

One of Newton's most prominent public servants said, privately, a short time ago that the Republican situation in connection with the 1948 election was somewhat confused. He suggested that Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York might conceivably cancel each other out and that some capable statesman like Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan might win a compromise nomination for the G.O.P. He suggested, further, that former Governor Harold Stassen of Minnesota may have come out in the open a bit too soon. (That is one very good reason for my prediction some weeks ago that Stassen would NOT be the G.O.P. nominee in 1948.) The following statement, however, is what intrigued me, most. In our discussion of Senator Taft of Ohio, this prominent Newtonian made it clear that he did not entirely agree with me in my rather critical estimate of that gentleman. When I stated flatly that the Senator was a "cold fish," he replied that Governor Dewey of New York was at least as cool a proposition, if not cooler. Interesting, is it not? His final comment, as I recall it, was that very likely Governor Dewey might attract more popular support to his candidacy but that Senator Taft would be apt to secure more delegates to the Presidential convention. That, needless to state, is what counts in politics.

Governor Bradford's Budget

As might have been expected, the Governor's budget was greeted quite differently in the two major parties in this state. The Democrats ridiculed it and called it an "atomic budget" whereas the Republicans and businessmen generally hailed it as a courageous, far-seeing piece of statesmanship. How can we account for this difference of opinion? First of all, let us remember that those who have "sounded off" most loudly, especially in the case of the Democrats, felt that they had to in order to be faithful to their party. However, it is going to be a bit grotesque to have the Democrats, who have no profound reputation for economy, either in this state or in Washington, acting as watchdogs of the Treasury.

Can you imagine that? Now, in order matter, let us admit that the G.O.P. was highly critical of former Governor Tobin's large budget and gave indications that if the G.O.P. was restored to power, the financial situation would improve. However, if the Democrats want to be equally fair, let THEM point out just exactly where and how they would cut down the Bradford budget. Certain items, such as fixed charges, cannot, of course, be cut and there are extremely heavy expenditures in connection with health, welfare, veterans' services, etc., which very few Democrats would even think of tampering with. No new services to our citizens are provided for in this budget. Furthermore, costs have risen tremendously all along the line. Again to be fair, however, Governor Tobin could make the same statement.

What we seem to need right now is a general overhauling of our tax structure and a new appraisal of the plight of our cities and towns, together with the responsibility which the state should bear in connection with their dilemma. This is where the Governor's new Advisory Committee on Finance fits into the picture. More power to these gentlemen. They can render a splendid service to our entire citizenry.

That Welansky Pardon

It had been my intention some weeks ago to comment on the interesting vote cast by our Governor's Council in connection with the highly controversial pardon given to Barnett Welansky of Coconut Grove fame. The G.O.P. was split on this issue and quite a few people wondered just why our own Councilor, Otis M. Whitney of Concord, was recorded in favor of the pardon. I thought it best to hold my fire and await developments and I am now glad I did. It was brought to my attention at the time of the pardon that Welansky was practically sure to die within a matter of months. Presumably, those Councilors who voted in favor of his pardon, did so because they felt it was only humane and decent to do so. Why not let the man die in as much peace and comfort as possible? He had already spent three and a half years in prison as a sick man. His early passing had been predicted by eminent doctors. Frankly, I am wondering if I would not have voted for the pardon if I had been a member of the Governor's Council.

Mental Hospitals

Those who read the papers regularly and thoroughly must be shocked at the conditions prevailing in our mental hospitals and in many other hospitals, for that matter. There is a terrible shortage of manpower and woman power. The word terrible is used advisedly. It seems to me that here is a problem which all our women's clubs and all our civic organizations might well dig into. Not that many of them are not already doing something about it. There must be a good many which could afford to reappraise their present activities and see if some way cannot be found to bring pressure to bear to the end that those mental patients may get a fair break.

146 SUMMER ST. BOSTON

Annual Report of Executive Director of West Newton Community Centre, Inc.

"Let's talk about ourselves!" 1946 is ended and the new year 1947 is about to begin. There is no time of year when more people are working on a common problem, that of preparing the annual inventory, whether it is one of figures, or one of evaluation of work carried on over the twelve month period just ended.

The West Newton Community Centre, Inc. (a Newton Red Feather Service) is in business—the business of human relationships, and this is the time of year when we must give to the community we are trying to serve an accounting of the work carried on through the forty-seven weekly activities which have made up our program during 1946.

The story is told of a Field Secretary of the National Recreation Association who one day found himself up against the tough proposition in the person of the Chairman of the Community Chest of a midwestern town. The Secretary was endeavoring to promote the organization of a recreational activity in that area and the Chairman didn't think it was at all needed. Among other arguments, he vehemently told the Secretary that it was unnecessary to teach people to play, that children in general play naturally, and closed his telling remarks by asking, "What are you trying to do . . . teach fishes to swim?"

To which the National Recreation Association representative replied, "No! We're just trying to teach them not to take the wrong bait."

Varying interests need varying activities. Some of our members are inclined to the home making type of group—sewing, cooking, and knitting. Some like a variety of experiences and are found in craft and woodworking groups. Others find real opportunity for expression through choral, painting, story telling and dancing classes. Some like quiet games, the opportunity to read, or to borrow books from our library. Others find their "place in the sun" through active games and sports. An attendance of five thousand two hundred and seventy-two has been counted in the daytime activities for boys and girls. Have they in some small way been guided "not to take the wrong bait?"

Our program for boys over thirteen years of age returned to a near-normal level during the early part of 1946, and then was further expanded in the fall. At the close of the year the schedule includes some activity which boys may attend on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights. Basketball still remains very popular. A Sports period on Tuesday nights brings in those who are interested in boxing and other forms of group games other than basketball. One night for those interested in Model Boat Building has been added to the program, and the social game room activity which includes the use of the pool and ping pong tables has been limited to one night weekly. We were sorry to have our swimming schedule curtailed this fall, since this has been one of the increasingly popular groups during the years, but we feel grateful to the Newton Y. M. C. A. for the use of their equipment, and are pleased, with them, that their own membership has so increased that it requires the time previously given to us.

An attendance of nineteen hundred has been accrued through our early evening activities for boys.

Ball Room Dancing is one of the most popular pastimes with the teen-agers. Nineteen hundred and sixteen boys and girls have attended our three classes on Thursday and Friday nights during the past year.

But all the evening work is not done with boys and girls—oh, no! Over one hundred women have been enrolled in our two social clubs for women and in the Knitting, Craft and Home Nursing Classes which reached an attendance to five thousand, six hundred and twenty-one, in regularly scheduled groups.

In its new location on Dudley Pond, Two Centre's Day Camp, which is run cooperatively with the Rebecca Pomroy House of Newton, enjoyed one of its best seasons. All activities were conducted out of doors except the rest period. Handwork, lunch, story hour, singing periods were much more fun out under the trees. More space to play games, a fishing spot on our own property, and our own "swimming hole" made day camping a pleasurable experience for children and staff alike. Four hundred and forty-six camper days were enjoyed by West Newton children.

Twenty-five hundred and ninety-three persons attended special activities and events during 1946. Trips were made to museums and places of historical interest, as well as picnic areas, supplementing the children's program. Two All-Women's Groups evenings were jointly conducted and enjoyed. Seven Christmas parties with an attendance of nearly four hundred were held. Outside organizations, using our facilities brought new persons to the Centre and made new friends for us. The Spring and Fall Rummage Sales conducted by the Centre Building Association were well attended and profitable. These sales made a real contribution to the community program, providing, as they do, an opportunity to purchase good used clothing and household articles inexpensively at a time when values are none too good and prices high.

The total attendance of the West Newton Women's Edu. Club

The American Home Class of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will hold its regular meeting on Wednesday, February 5, at the home of Mrs. Roy A. Stinson, 22 Furbush avenue, West Newton. At 12:30 p.m. a luncheon will be served under the direction of Mrs. Alfred E. Thayer, assisted by Mrs. C. E. Gibson, Mrs. C. A. Stimets and Mrs. H. D. Stone. Following the business meeting, Mr. R. F. Lyons of the Mayflower Furniture Company, will give a talk on "Room Planning and Arrangement."

West Newton Community Centre, Inc., for the year 1946 was thirteen thousand, nine hundred and thirty-two.

An opportunity for new experiences shared with others who have like interests, the making of friendships, the learning of a natural respect for one's neighbors, regardless of his race, nationality or creed, the chance to "let-off-steam" when home tensions are running high, and finding the joy of working and playing together—these are some of the right kind of "bait" offered at the West Newton Community Centre, Inc.

In order to keep her quiet, a professor took a newspaper containing a map of the world and gave it to his daughter, suggesting that she try to put the map together. He felt sure that this would keep her occupied and quiet for quite a spell, but was astonished when in a few minutes she called him to view the finished job. Inspection revealed that it was perfectly done, and when he asked how she could do this so quickly the girl remarked that it was very easy because "You see, Daddy, on the other side of the map there's a large picture of a boy, and I knew that if I could build the boy right, then the world would come out right."

Here at the Centre, the Board of Directors, the Staff Workers, and the members are helping to build the human side of the world, confident that if we build wisely, and with faith, our part of this very turbulent world will come out right.

LOOK WHAT YOU CAN GET for only

$10 a month, for ten years

$3,000.00 STRAIGHT LIFE INSURANCE DEATH BENEFIT (CASH VALUE $360.30)
$736.59 CASH SAVINGS! (PLUS INTEREST)

Under our new "packaged-savings" plan, one simple monthly payment continued for ten years, will provide both substantial cash savings and the life insurance protection that every family needs.

It's simplicity itself! All you have to do is decide how much you can afford to deposit monthly, bring it in to the bank (or mail, if more convenient) and we will divide it between cash savings and insurance in whatever proportions best suit your particular needs.

This example shows what can be accomplished with a regular deposit of only $10.00 a month for ten years (at age 30). Other "packaged savings" plans may be worked out for a larger—or smaller—monthly deposit, for a longer or shorter period than ten years, for paid-up life insurance or an endowment policy, instead of straight life insurance. The plan is completely flexible—may be tailored to fit your needs!

It's easy to understand, too—but because it is different, there may be questions you'll want to ask. "Must I continue the plan for the full ten years?" (No, you may stop at any time) "Do I get interest on my savings deposits?" (Yes, at our current rates) "May I make weekly instead of monthly deposits?" (Yes, plans may be arranged for as little as $1 a week), etc., etc.

To answer these and other questions, a new booklet has been prepared. Stop in or write for it now, so you can get started on this streamlined "packaged savings" program today.

"Sharing the line.."

a friendly
New England
habit

Whether you're using a ski tow—or party line telephone service—the friendly New England habit of sharing helps everyone get the most out of the facilities at hand.

By keeping your calls brief . . . allowing a little time between calls . . . and answering your telephone promptly, you, as well as your neighbors, can enjoy the maximum benefits from a party line.

Shortages of materials have delayed the huge construction program scheduled here in New England. But, as new equipment becomes available, we will again be in a position to provide individual telephone service to all who want it. Meantime, by putting people on party lines, we are able to give service to many who couldn't have had it otherwise for some time.

Minstrel Show Features Lower Falls Club Meeting

A minstrel show was presented by Dens 1, 2, and 3 of Cub Pack 23, Norumbega Council at their monthly pack meeting on the evening of January 21, under the guidance of Den Mothers Ruth Reed, Virginia Vassalotti, and Mary Loring. Lawrence Henley, den chief, proved himself an able interactor and drew out the performers in a professional manner.

Den 2, with Bobby Bizjak, Charles Wright, Bobby Henley, Richard and Robert Reske, Bobby Moreau, and Guy Vassalotti, started the ball rolling with appropriate jokes and quips, interspersed with numbers by a "tin pan alley" orchestra, a sailor's hornpipe by Richard Reske, and a vocal solo by the interactor.

Den 3, was represented by Joey Bartzak, Donald Loring, and Dicky Emmets in similar fashion. Tommy and Kevin Dooley of Den 1, argued effectively over their respective merits as would be musicians. David Reed gave a rendition of the "Putti-put" song, and Davis Gernes sang "Home on the Range" with ukulele accompaniment. David Doyle and Jimmy Rourke rounded out the efforts of Den 1 with jokes and riddles. Bobby Thompson appeared in a hilarious finale as Aunt Jemima.

Prior to the skit, Cubmaster Louis J. Vassalotti, explained the achievement system and displayed the various den doodles to the parents.

The minstrel show will be repeated for the children of the Hamilton School in the near future.

West Newton Community Center Elects Officers

The Annual Meeting of the Corporation of the West Newton Community Center, Inc. was held on Tuesday, January 28 at the Club House on Waltham street, West Newton at three o'clock.

Mrs. Hugh L. Robinson presided, and committee reports were read. An innovation was started this past year, that of having gentlemen as members of the Corporation and of the Board of Directors. This has been most successful as Mr. Louis A. Meyers and Mr. Ralph Tabor have helped tremendously on the work of the Center. Mr. Richard B. Cole was in charge of the Summer Day Camp run in conjunction with the Pomeroy Home. This year the site of the Camp was changed to a lovely pine grove on the shore of Dudley pond in Cohasset where the boys and girls had more opportunity than before for fun and accomplishment.

Mrs. Adrian O'Keefe and her capable committee ran two most successful Rummage Sales to add to the capital of the Center Building Association Fund. New Officers of the Corporation duly elected were as follows:

President, Mrs. Hugh L. Robinson; Honorary Vice-President, Mrs. Robert H. Gross; First Vice-President, Mrs. William P. Helms; Second Vice-President, Mrs. Henry F. Cate, Jr.; Third Vice-President, Mrs. Frederic C. Wells; Secretary, Mrs. Richard B. Cole; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Louis A. Myers; Treasurer, Mrs. W. Duncan Russell; Assistant Treasurer, Miss Catherine M. Bolster; Member-at-large, Mrs. George C. Sweeney.

After the adjournment of this meeting the Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors of the West Newton Community Center was held with Mrs. Hugh L. Robinson presiding. The same slate of officers was elected as officers of the Board of Directors. In her report as Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Louis A. Myers, paid tribute to the thirty-two active members who through their hard work and interest help to make the Center the success it is. Mr. Louis A. Myers reported on the Center Building Association, a new committee composed of Mr. Tabor, Mrs. Edmund Anthony, a past President of the Board, and Mr. Myers. Mrs. William H. Cady, the Executive Director, reported comprehensively on the growth and accomplishments of the past year. Interest in the opportunities offered by the Center has increased tremendously and there have been many new demands made for additional classes. From the reports of all the committees and of Mrs. Cady it is most apparent that accomplishments of the Center are definitely limited by its inadequate facilities although it achieves amazing success in spite of its limitation.

The West Newton Community is a Red Feather organization.

Haydn Pearson Lists 10 Pointers for Authors

Ten pointers to budding authors were given at the Writers' Workshop sponsored by the Literature Committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club on January 22, by Haydn Pearson, Newton writer at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Leonard Rowley, 18 Loring street, Newton Centre.

Stating that writing is a "craftsmanship job with words," he advised against writing for any market until the author has learned to judge his work by professional standards. He warned against sticking to one field of writing, listing the different fields as follows: Research articles, inspirational psychological articles, "how-to-do" and humorous articles.

Getting the most from the material entails good work habits and plan or regime of work. The time element is important in this case, he said, and must be utilized to good advantage. In connection with this point is the organization of the article, he pointed out, stating that the subject dictates the length.

To those who have trouble in developing a style of writing, the author gave the following advice: "Do not worry about style, and do not use big words. Be yourself. That is your style."

Ideas for articles come from many sources, according to Mr. Pearson, who named newspapers, magazines, books and associations with others "An author must meet people and grow," he stated. With regard to vocabulary, he said a notebook of 30,000 to 40,000 words is necessary, with a word usage of approximately 15,000.

The literary prize contest sponsored by the workshop during the year ended on January 22. Fourteen short stories were submitted and will be judged by Mrs. Francis J. Flagg, chairman of the committee, and several Newton authors.

Announcement was made of two other short story contests which are being held. One is being sponsored by the Newton Federation under the topic "Schools I Want and How to Get Them," and the other by the State Federation on the subject "What the Woman's Club Means to the Community."

The Workshop is planning a hobby night for February, when work done by the members will be exhibited. On March 20, a Chinese supper meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George W. VanGorder, 70 Burdean road, Newton Centre.

Hold Panel Discussion on Junior High Education

On Tuesday evening, January 21, Mr. Raymond Blaisdell, Principal of Weeks Jr. High School, accompanied by Miss Larson and Miss Glenn, participated in a panel discussion presented by the Lexington Jr. High School P.T.A. on the subject "Issues and Conflicts in Junior High School Education."

At the organizational meeting last December, a group of more than sixty parents voted the adoption of a constitution and by-laws, and elected a slate of officers consisting of George Koller, President, Henry Donovan, William R. Newton Highlands Men's Club

The Penny Sale conducted by the Newton Highlands Men's Club on Friday evening, January 24th, was a real success in every respect. More than five hundred patrons were in attendance and the drawings for the more than one hundred prizes were fast and exciting. The grand prize, a $350 G. E. radio-phonograph combination, was won by Edward Brown of 148 Dickerman road, Newton Highlands. Mr. Brown also won an additional $50 prize as the Club member who sold the winning ticket. The prizes were of a substantial and useful nature and were purchased from the business houses of Newton Highlands who so generously supported the Club last fall with advertising on the fifty new card tables then acquired by the Club.

The February meeting scheduled for Tuesday evening, February 4th, is Ladies Night and a large attendance is expected. The program comprises two interesting and entertaining features. The principal feature is an illustrated lecture by the well-known Bradford Washburn on "An Alaskan Adventure," and this feature will be preceded with impersonations by the Raleigh brothers of Newton. The Raleigh boys entertained the Club at its last meeting and the reception of their act can be best judged by the fact that they have been requested to return for this repeat performance.

The dinner starts sharply at seven o'clock.

Dr. Krush to Tell of Children's Illnesses; Influence Behavior

Dr. Thaddeus Krush, senior physician at the Metropolitan State Hospital, will speak on "Special Problems of Children" at the January meeting of the Conference and Study Group of the Newton Community Council. Dr. Krush will tell the staffs of the public and private agencies in Newton and interested lay citizens of the facilities and personnel available at the Metropolitan State Hospital's new clinic for psychotic children. He will speak of the aims of this clinic, the only one of its kind in Massachusetts. Dr. Krush will discuss the illnesses of children which influence behavior and illustrate by case histories the more extreme types of behavior problems. Children who have been brought to court for misdemeanors are frequently referred to this clinic now as ill children who require psychiatric care rather than reform school sentences.

Dr. Krush is a graduate of Western Reserve University's School of Medicine and interned at the St. Francis Hospital in Philadelphia. For three and one half years during the war he served in the European theatre as surgeon to an Infantry Division. He came to the Metropolitan State Hospital as resident in psychiatry and was recently appointed senior physician. Dr. Krush, his wife and two children reside in Newton. Mrs. Krush is a social worker at the Massachusetts General Hospital.

This meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 28, at 10:30 a.m. in the Newtonville Methodist Church. As always Rev. Herbert Hitchen, chairman, extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend.

ably co-operating in the preliminary planning. Throughout the day, candy, coke, sandwiches and coffee will also be available. The preceding day - Friday, March 7 - has been designated as Inspection Day. Primarily intended to permit leisurely inspection of the unusually fine items to be auctioned on Saturday, this day will in addition offer for sale a large variety of items. There will be an admission fee of 10c, plus tax, on Inspection Day, and tea will be served.

The items to be auctioned on Saturday are far removed from the ordinary assortment displayed on many similar occasions. A great many of them are, actually, choice collectors' items; and all have been selected with such extreme care that this auction should set a new high standard of worth and intrinsic value for events of this nature. Among the hundreds of pieces will be rare antiques, beautiful china, fine linens, lace and shawls, exquisite silver, fascinating bric-a-brac and interesting lamps, as well as furniture, children's furniture, electrical appliances, miscellaneous, desirable household articles and delightful toys.

Mrs. Louis F. Billings, 23 Oxford road, Newton Centre, is General Chairman for the entire event; and assisting her is the following general committee, consisting of these officers of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs: Miss Adelaide B. Ball, President of the Federation; Miss Estelle G. Marsh, First Vice-President; Mrs. William E. Worcester, Second Vice-President; Mrs. Roger C. Ellis, Third Vice-President; Mrs. Frederick G. Fisher, Recording Secretary; Miss Miriam Drury, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Ernest F. Dow, Treasurer; Miss Anne Bunker, Auditor; and in addition, Mrs. F. Brittain Kennedy, Mrs. Victor H. Vaughan, Mrs. C. Warren Howe, Mrs. Donald Flinchbaugh and Mrs. R. Raymond Gorton, who, together with Mrs. Billings, are directors of the Federation.

If any further information is desired, Mrs. Billings states that she will be glad to supply it. Her telephone number is DEC. 0763.

Tax Rate—

which is self-supporting, and will therefore not affect the tax rate.

The employees' bonus provides a 25 per cent increase in pay for all employees and teachers, for the year 1947, with a maximum benefit of $500 per year. This is an increase of 10 per cent over the 1946 bonus, which was a 15 per cent increase with a $300 per year maximum benefit. The 10 per cent increase in pay will have the effect of increasing the 1947 tax rate by about $1.65.

The Newton School Committee has voted that, effective Jan. 1, 1947, teachers' salaries will be permanently increased. The new schedule provides a minimum starting pay for teachers of $1600. The 343 teachers who were initially employed prior to 1942 will receive a $300 per year permanent increase; those initially employed in 1943 and 1944 will receive $200 per year permanent increase; and those employed in 1945 and 1946 will receive a $100 per year permanent increase. In addition to teachers, permanent increases have been voted to custodians, clerks, secretaries and the cafeteria staff. These increases are in addition to the $500 bonus mentioned previously. The cost of the permanent salary increases will add about 75 cents to the 1947 tax rate.

There are indications that the State tax in 1947 will be between 15 million and 25 million dollars, of which Newton's share will be perhaps $500,000. Should this prove to be the case, it will constitute an added burden on Newton taxpayers, amounting to between $1.50 and $3.00 on the 1947 tax rate.

At the beginning of 1946 the City had about one million dollars in "available funds." This was unpaid tax money which had been collected during the war years. In preparing the 1946 Tax Rate the Board of Aldermen chooses not to use the remainder of these "available funds" in 1947, but saves them to buy new equipment as prices decline with rising production, expenditures fade after the 1946 Tax Rate was announced may increase the 1947 Tax Rate by another $3.00.

One of the problems in assessment practice, since the war years, has been the rise in the costs of new and older homes. Normally the Assessors attempt to base their judgment of the value of real and personal property upon the sale price of new and similar property, minus a reasonable depreciation. If this policy were followed in 1946 and 1947, virtually every home in Newton would have its assessment doubled for these years, though possibly cut in half in 1948. With these unstable conditions in mind the Assessors are revaluing all houses built since 1920 to conform to the 1942 increase. This will mean minor increases to many individual taxpayers, but assessed values will still be below the sale prices of January 1, 1947.

When total assessment on property is increased, it tends to lower Tax Rate. Total assessments will be higher in 1947 than in 1946, possibly by 1 million dollars. Such an increase in assessment, without added expense for municipal services, will have the effect of offsetting $34,000 in expenditures. However, since the added expenditures in 1947 may total 1 million dollars, the effect of the increased assessments on the Tax Rate will not offset the higher expenditures.

The observations obtained in the previous paragraphs from the bulletin, which are based on best information obtainable in early January, may be summarized as follows:

|--|----------------|
| 1946 Tax Rate | $29.00 |
| Affect City Employee increases in salary | $2.40 |
| Affect State Tax | 1.50 to $3.00 |
| Affect "available funds" | 3.00 |
| Affect increase in assessments | —20 |
| | $6.90 —20 |
| Net affect | 6.70 |
| Probable Tax Rate | $35.70 |

corn countries, needs all the willing hands, experienced minds and warm hearts which can be rallied. These are the qualities which have always been found in the work of the Young Women's Christian Association and we are happy to know that its leaders have again started the sorely needed service to girls of our country. It is our hope that this work will be widely extended throughout Czechoslovakia.

In Prague, each woman of the Y.W.C.A. had lost a member of her family. One member of the Association staff had seen fourteen of her loved ones executed. Another had been lashed by a prison guard until totally deaf.

Madame Horakova of the Prague Board was typical. Distinguished lawyer and resistance leader, she had been one of the first and most obvious victims of the Nazi terror. Despite five years behind prison bars, she asked only for work, not rest.

In the midst of her work with the Y.W.C.A. she was elected to the National Parliament and is today recognized as one of Czechoslovakia's outstanding legislators.

Madame Pelantova, another YWCA woman, is Vice Mayor of Prague. She is giving vital leadership to the women of the community and establishing a considerable reputation as an administrator.

On taking office, Madame Pelantova looked around the city. Reconstruction was moving slowly. Building materials were scarce. Labor was at a premium. "At least, we can clean up the city," she said. Her first official act was to organize a street-sweeping brigade, enrolling women from every walk of life in Prague. Taking a broom herself, she supervised the sweeping of every square foot of the war-battered capital. This was the start that broke the apathetic spell that followed liberation.

The Czech capital has moved steadily forward ever since.

The women of Czechoslovakia are looking forward, not back. They do not complain. "Our work is just beginning," remarked one Prague woman who dared to hope that a better world could be made to rise from the ruins of war. In fact, it was her inspiring outlook that stimulated the slogan for the Round-the-World YWCA Reconstruction Fund. "Woman's Work Is Just Begun." The little brooms made by the Cambridge Community Center are the campaign emblem in Boston.

Mrs. Lucius E. Thayer of West Newton, who is co-chairman with Mrs. Mercer for the Boston campaign is among those giving dinner parties before going on to Brae-Burn. Others entertaining before going on to Brae-Burn are Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Goddard of Auburndale, Dr. and Mrs. Harold G. Giddings, Mr. and Mrs. David W. Tibbott and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley P. Lovell. Those giving parties for the evening at Brae-Burn are Mr. and Mrs. John R. Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Wells, Dr. and Mrs. Henry C. Marble, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Horvitz, and Mr. and Mrs. B. Alden Thresher.

Mrs. Frank E. Jennings is in charge of the ushers who are: Mrs. Malcolm T. Floyd, Mrs. Edmond F. Perkins, Miss Ruth Ross, Miss Barbara Lounsbury, Mrs. William Allen Swartz, Mrs. Robert Casselman, Mrs. William B. Sheriff, Mrs. Donald B. Conant.

On Monday, February 17, at 10:30, Mrs. Stanley P. Lovell is having a morning coffee at her home for the members of the Newton Committee which comprises Miss M. Louise Walworth, and Mmes. John C. Beale, Wil-

Other workers have been Miss Gertrude Chagnon, Mrs. Arthur Wood, Mrs. Nelson Scott, Mrs. Laurence Shaw, Mrs. Thomas V. Cleveland. The work was of the usual high quality, each performer showing careful training and real musical appreciation. Parents and teachers of those taking part were invited guests.

A staff and faculty meeting followed the recital. Tea was served at 5:30 and the meeting held at 6:30. Hostesses for the tea were Miss Theresa Caruso, Miss Irene W. Forte and Mrs. Arthur Scipione. Anderson—

A large staff of mechanics of long experience are ready to make repairs on Studebakers or any other make of car.

Mr. John C. Anderson, President and treasurer of the company, said, "When you bring your car in here for repairs we won't try to sell you work you don't want. We'll keep your car in good running order at a reasonable cost. Our service manager will quote exact prices in advance for most work. We don't do cheap work and we don't overcharge. Our prices are fair and we guarantee the work we do."

There are a few new Studebaker trucks available now. They include 1/2 ton pick-ups and 1 and 1 1/2 ton trucks.

Mr. Anderson cordially invites all to inspect the building, show rooms and service shops.

1947 Studebakers will also be on display. The formal opening is Monday February 3.

New 1947 Studebakers Are Definitely Post-war Cars

Studebaker has achieved the distinction of being first on the market with new 1947-model cars, thanks to the unique spirit that pervades its entire organization.

They're cars completely new from every view. Low, long lines and superb appointments say more than columns of words could about their beauty. They're extra wide and roomy.

They're engineered in accord with advanced Studebaker principles of design that give you undreamed-of new riding comfort—plus top operating economy. And they're solid and sound with the trustworthy workmanship of the automobile industry's most painstaking craftsmen.

Since the 1947 Studebakers were introduced more and more buyers of automobiles have become "postwar" conscious. They have seen with their own eyes that Studebaker's new Champion is in every sense a "postwar" automobile; a basically new 1947 car. Other cars that were in production before the war are 1946 "models"—but basically 1942 cars; with new radiator grilles, some changes in the "sheet metal" and trim, and a few minor mechanical improvements.

Many thousands who have been buying these "interim" models do so for the sole reason that there aren't enough of the 1947 Champions to go around. A large proportion of these people have been so favorably impressed by Studebaker's progressive action in brushing aside the obstacles and building a true post-war automobile—redesigned from top to tread—that they will be ready to shift to Studebaker when the car supply eases up a bit. Many are already offering to trade their 1946 cars of other makes on 1947 Champions.

Airplane type "black light" instrument panels. . . Exclusive self-adjusting brakes. . . Exclusive planar front end suspension—these features and many more are standard equipment. And, at moderate added cost, you get: Studebaker's exclusive Climatizer ventilating and heating system. . . Gas-saving overdrive. . . Automatic hill holder.

Great strides have been made in the development of professional service on the eyes.

Arrangements were discussed for future joint meetings of the Newton, Needham, Waltham and Watertown clubs.

Dr. John Hanks of Newton Centre was nominated chairman of the boys and girls committee, which is the active sponsor of the West Newton, ship 13 Sea Scouts.

35TH ANNIVERSARY GIRL SCOUTS

BETTER CITIZENS... BUILD A BETTER WORLD

"In 1947 the Girl Scouts of Newton will join with more than a million Girl Scouts all over the country to celebrate the Thirty-fifth Anniversary of the founding of Girl Scouting in the United States," Mrs. Henry Whitmore, Jr., of the Newton Council announced today.

Plans are already under way, Mrs. Whitmore said, to observe the official birthday on March 12th. Newton Council will join with the greater Boston area Councils in the 35th Anniversary Dinner to be held at the Copley Plaza on March 12th. At this dinner Mrs. C. Vaughn Ferguson, National President of the Girl Scouts will be a guest of honor, and tribute will be paid to the local founders of each one of the local Councils in this area. Emphasizing the fact that Girl Scouting is a community enterprise which reaches around the world, the Newton Girl Scouts will stress homemaking, community service, and international friendship activities in this anniversary year.

More than five hundred proficiency badges in the homemaking field were earned by Newton Girl Scouts last year, according to Mrs. Whitmore, and many troops this year will work with their families and leaders on such projects as the March of Dimes, the Juliette Low Memorial Friendship Fund, the sending of Seeds of Goodwill to the war ravaged areas of Europe, and other local community service projects.

Mrs. Ralph E. Keyes is serving as the Newton representative on the Boston committee arranging for the Anniversary Dinner, Mrs. Whitmore announced, and Mrs. Joseph Schaffer has been appointed as chairman for the Juliette Low Committee. Serving with Mrs. Schaffer who represents Auburndale are Mrs. Fred Hardy of Newton, Mrs. Allston Budgell of Newton Highlands, Mrs. John Perkins of Newtonville, and Mrs. Alvah Ring of Waban.

To the Commission of the Department of Public Utilities: Respectfully represents Boston Edison Company, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of said Commonwealth and having its principal office in Boston, Suffolk County, Massachusetts, hereinafter called the Company:

1. That the Company is a public service corporation authorized to generate, transmit, distribute and sell electricity and is an electric company as defined in Chapter 164 of the General Laws (Ter. Ed.).

Said parcel of land is shown on a plan entitled "Boston Edison Company Engineering Department—Equipment Location Plan Newtonville Sub-Station" drawn by E. F. Miller and dated December 13, 1946, a copy of which is filed herewith.

The approximate location of the proposed substation on the above described parcel of land is shown on said plan.

4. That the proposed situation of said substation is reasonably necessary for the convenience or welfare of the public.

Speaks on Post-War Germany At Pomroy House Meeting

Mrs. Hugh S. Hince of Newton, presided at the annual meeting of the Rebecca Pomroy House, a Newton Red Feather Service, on Wednesday, Mrs. Hince introduced Mrs. Barbara Straede of Waltham who was the principal speaker of the afternoon. Mrs. Straede was in Germany during the war years and worked for the British Government immediately after World War II. She stressed that prevention of starvation and disease of the mind are two of the biggest problems among the Germans today. Coal is the key to the whole situation for without it and the necessary transportation to disperse it, not much can be done to relieve the tremendous needs in housing, food and clothing. The young people up to 18 years of age are finding it very difficult for their schools have been demolished and teachers are scarce. The Germans have to care for their own problems as the occupying forces do little social service work.

Miss Helen I. Sandstrom, executive worker of the Rebecca Pomroy House, reported that there has been a steady increase in the use of the House by the neighborhood ever since it opened. The Nursery School is adding 50% to its roll. Mrs. Lilo Koehl, the new director, is carrying on with Mrs. Ruth Tedesco and a new nursery school assistant, Mrs. Margaret Roebuck. Miss Emily Faldetta has been added to the staff as a new full time worker which has relieved pressure and added new activities.

Tea was served by Miss Louise M. Lovett and Mrs. Frank Watson.

The new officers elected for the coming year are: Mrs. C. R. Mease, president; Mrs. Sterling Loveland, vice president; Mrs. J. Leroy Conel, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank Watson, clerk; Mrs. Frederick S. Bacon, treasurer; Mr. Kenneth S. Barton, assistant treasurer.
